ROCK-OLA

Castle Park High School
1395 Hilltop Drive
Chula Vista, California

The Best of '85

We've definitely scored a big hit this year. The terrific students at Castle Park earned the "platinum" for their great victories of the mind, body, and soul. It was a record year in so many ways.

When top recording artists create many hit records, they often compile them in an album which they entitle their "best." For example, if Ratt were putting together a record of their best, they might choose "Round and Round" or "Back for More." Duran Duran would possibly select "New Moon on Monday" and "Hungry Like the Wolf." Of course, Michael Jackson would seriously consider "Thriller" and "Beat It" for his top album.

The Speculum staff, in selecting THE BEST OF '85 at Troy, had to choose between many great moments. For example, one of the big events on campus was the week of Homecoming '85, which started with an assembly for the queen candidates and dramatically ended with the big game. There were many exciting athletic contests from September until May. Many of these are shown for you on the following pages. Naturally, we had to provide a record of many of the hilarious activities surrounding B.M.O.C. week, too.

Hopefully, you will find in these next pages, many of those events which you also remember as your BEST OF '85.

We're bad. The homecoming assembly was a big event for our mascots. It was the first time they got to ride the newly-refurbished chariot.

Magnificent mascots. Arriving in their princely chariot at the Homecoming game, Arnold Damasco and Roseanne Ruiz bring cheers from the fans.

Spirit shows. During the first assembly of the '84-'85 school year, the Castle Park student body greets Tommy Trojan and Helen of Troy with enthusiasm.

Heart and Soul

The Glamorous Life

Homecoming '85 showed a "Touch of Class." The whole week was an exciting one for everyone on campus. Tuesday was the Homecoming candidate assembly, which spotlighted each nominee for Homecoming Queen. The voters rushed to the polls after the assembly. On Friday the Homecoming Assembly was a very special one. Alan Wiggins, a San Diego Padre, showed up to tell us how lucky he was to be a Padre, and how lucky we were to be Trojans. A TV crew came and filmed the entire assembly. We watched ourselves on Channel 10 news later. The Homecoming game was the moment everyone waited for. The candidates, Cheryl Davis, Debbie Fletcher, Clarissa Perez, Ana Plandor, and Elsa Woolverton came riding in convertibles. During the half-time Clarissa was announced the queen. The night finished off with a fabulous fireworks display and a Trojan victory over Mar Vista, 21 to 20.

Queen of Troy. Wearing a red satin gown, Clarissa and her father walk down the red carpet. Minutes later she was crowned Homecoming Queen for '85.

V-VI-Victory. Grace Espinelli is showing Trojan spirit during the Victory cheer to end a great assembly.

Twirling high. Led by Captain Sheila Miana, the Tall Flags put on a great show for the fans at Homecoming.

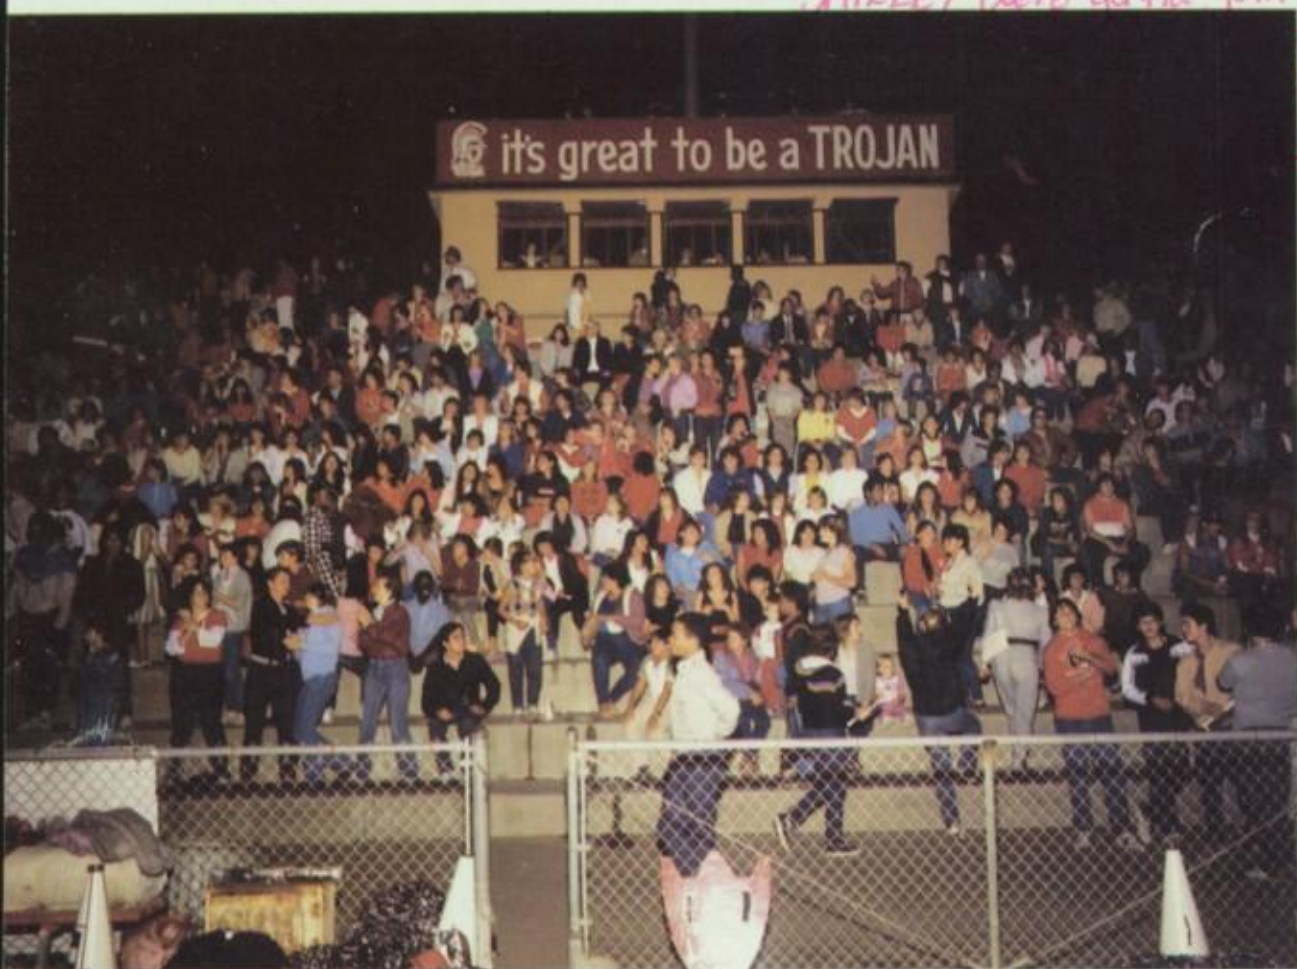

Proud Padre. Padre Allan Wiggins spoke to us about his pride in the Padres and in their adoptees, Castle Park. He also created a "first" by leading the wave.

Marching in style. At the beginning of the game the Trojanettes marched onto the field to salute the Trojans.

Snap to it. Not only did the Trojanettes march, but the Letterettes did, too. Their carrying the letters for Castle Park brought the fans to their feet.

Trojan fans. Many alumni and students showed up to support and encourage our football team to victory over Mar Vista.

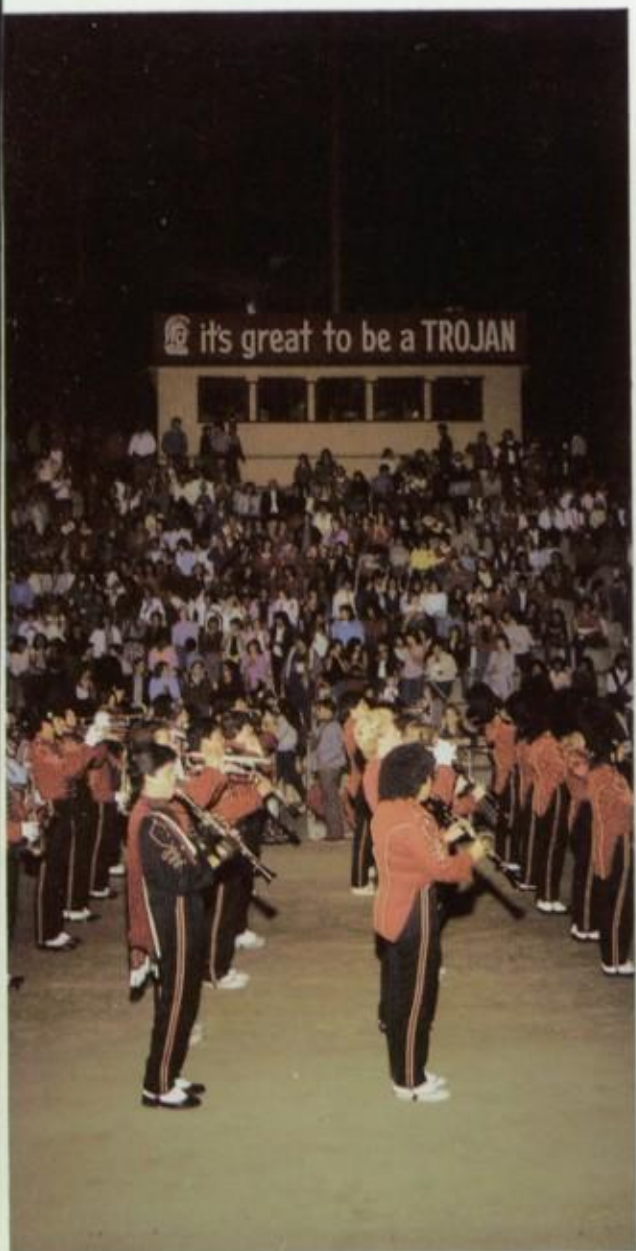

A Night to Remember

Royalty reigns. Homecoming Queen, Clarissa Perez, is presented with her court during the half-time festivities.

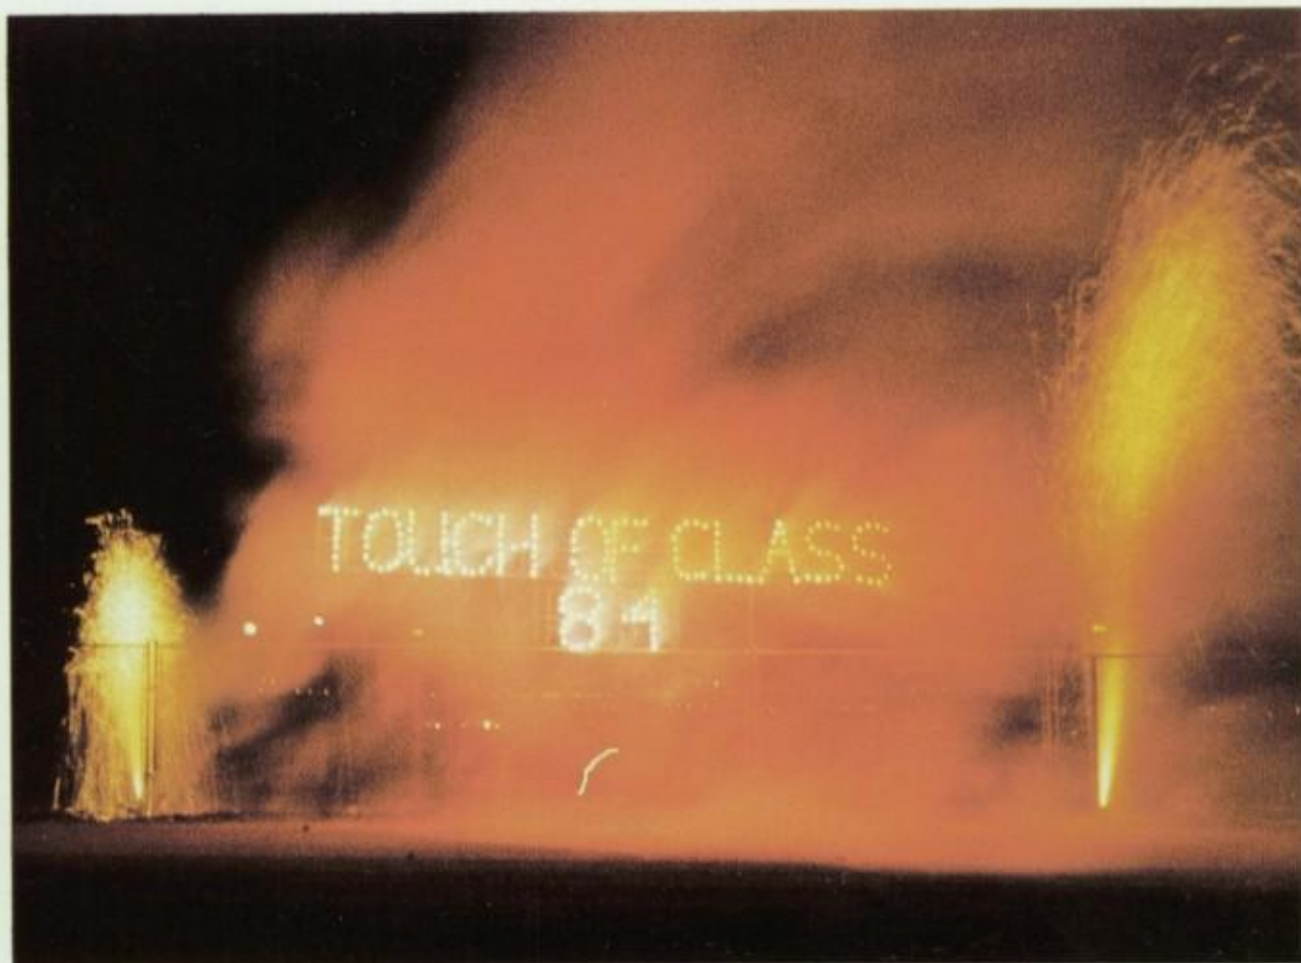

Togetherness. As Sunset Mobile Sights and Sound take a break from their fast beat, Carol Quillan and Gabriel Diaz slow dance at the Homecoming dance.

Strike up the band. Alumni and current members of the band help arouse the fans.

Great ending. A spectacular show of fireworks concluded the Homecoming festivities.

Traditional tailgate. Some of the Letterettes enjoy their meal before the Homecoming game.

All smiles. The crowd applauds loudly as Clarissa Perez makes her way to the stage at the Homecoming candidate assembly.

The wave. One of the highlights of the assembly was the "wave" which was led by Alan Wiggins.

Gliding on by. Sanford Slack, one of the hottest breakers around, is performing the move called "gliding." Gliding is not only a breaking move, but also a popular dance step.

Under pressure. Who ever heard of people walking like crabs? Well, here's Jimmy Kinnerman showing us a step called the "crabwalk."

My best side. Circling around, Brian Sudyka, does the crabwalk. This move requires a sense of balance and a lot of arm-strength.

I'll flare for ya. After school many breakers like to show their skills in front of friends and other breakers. David Carpenter demonstrates how to "flare."

Drama dilly dally. Hard work is required for the performances which the ninth grade drama class gives. However, when it's time for a break, the group clearly takes advantage of the moment.

Locker leisure. Needing supplies from her locker, Emily Carrillo takes her time getting them. It's very peaceful in the corridors when the classes are in session.

Rest and relaxation. After a hot day at school, Mia and Hector take time to cool off under a tree. Sylvia and Andre also enjoy the comfort of the Senior Lawn.

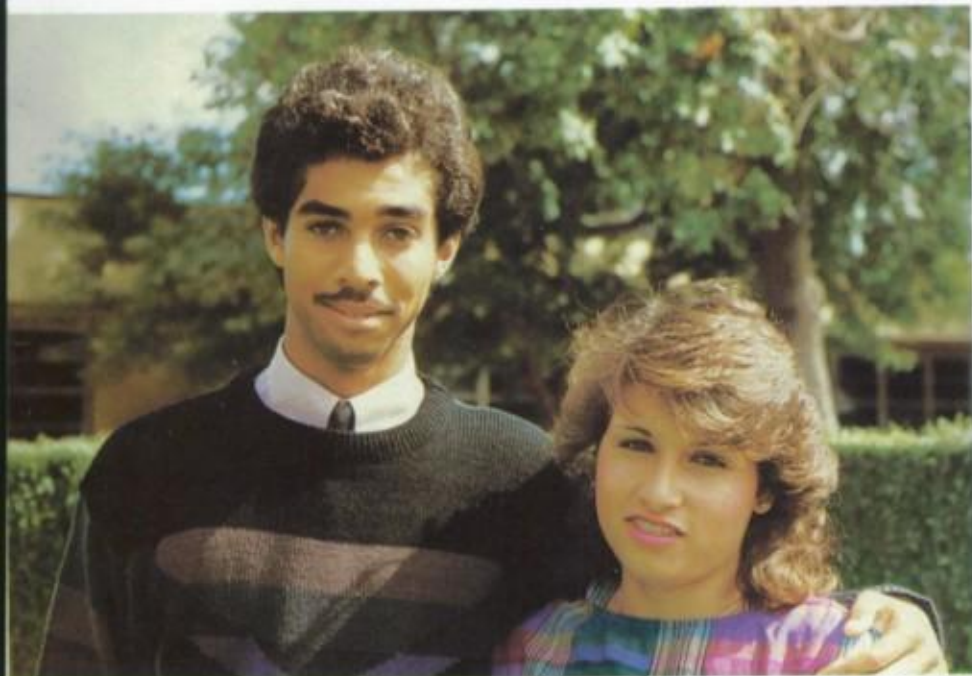

Killin' Time

At ease. There are certain times of the day at school when it's O.K. to relax. The quad provides a great place to do just that.

On the wall. If the seats in the quad are all taken, the wall at the end of the 300 building provides a perch for underclassmen who need a rest from their hectic class schedule.

What a Difference

Exit stage left. A new stage occupies the grassy area between the 900 building and the walkway on the eastern side of the lunch area. Many times, students can eat and be entertained at the same time.

Cast your vote. These lucky students actually get the honor of standing on the stage during the Homecoming Queen election. Arnold Damasco draws attention to the voting booths by putting them on our new platform.

a Year Makes

Great goons. These crazy looking characters were but a few of the many who dressed up for Halloween, and appeared on the stage at lunchtime. The ASB gave prizes of $5 for the best costume.

What's missing? Students at CPH in 1985 do not find a quad that looks like this photograph. In the summer of 1984 a stage was constructed here for the use and entertainment of Castle Park students.

Cheers. These glorious gals give the students a little extra "punch" during lunch. The new stage provides them with a performing platform and a ready-made audience.

You Wear It Well

People need to express themselves, and some may be louder than others. What better way to be loud than to say it on their shirts? Whether they know it or not, people tell others how they feel about certain subjects — like music, ERA, places, or life in general — by what message is imprinted on their shirts. They can buy an iron-on and have it applied to a shirt. Another possibility is to purchase a shirt with a slogan already on it. Not only are t-shirts inexpensive, comfortable, and easy to take care of, they also convey an eye-catching phrase which gets their point across easily without having to say a single word.

Spirit shines. Who are the best? Jack Covington displays to all, just who are!

Pennant fever. Susan Albers shows her support for the San Diego Padres, who adopted Castle Park, on their way to their first National League Pennant.

Duran-demonium. Celebrating the success of one of the hottest groups since the Beatles, Leigh Ann Gauger, Jennifer Mornik, and Patty Amador exhibit enthusiasm for Duran Duran's fame world-wide.

Dorito devotee. Noontime snacks from the ASB are common stomach fillers for students like Andy Schneider. They are alternatives to the cafeteria's long lines and larger lunches.

In the beginning. To help seniors better understand the school rules & regulations, and to let them know what their privileges are, a special senior assembly is called by the ASB in September.

Political Interest. Government classes discuss current events every day in order to keep up with what's happening and why. Andy H., Judy M. and Amy M. try to keep up with taking notes.

Making a point. Mr. Wallace lectures to his students about our government. Even though this isn't the most exciting way to teach, he relies on lecturing to get his point across.

Literature lingo. In World Literature classes diligence is the key to better understandings. Norman Moneed jots down some notes while listening to Mrs. Guilfoyle's literature talk.

Senior Slump

Take five. George Manly relaxes in class after successfully completing his work.

Senior circle. In an informal setting, Mr. Contreras discusses events and activities with some seniors.

Group work. There are times when Julie Gonzalez and Rachel Alvarez team up to work on a particularly tough assignment.

Prom and Acts Committee. E. Gonzalez, C. Ruiz, S. Koenig, R. Griffin, S. Albers, U. Gonzalez, E. Woolverton, N. Amaro, S. Aguayo, E. Ramirez, M. Walker, C. Tehan, N. Joya, M. Guda, J. Mascarina. Row: D. Ward, E. Arney, B. Roberts, R. Ruiz.

Sweetwater Board of Education. Jack Spirakes, Mrs. Judith Bauer, Mrs. Ruth Chapman, Pres. Steve Hogan, Dr. William Padelford, Supt. Mr. Aguilar, and Mrs. Lita David.

President of Board of Ed. Mr. Steve Hogan.

Student Representative. Jack Spirakes.

Hello again. On the first day of school Dr. Bane welcomes the Trojans back from summer vacation at the orientation assembly. More than a thousand students showed up that day.

Let's talk business. Once in a while Dr. Bane has an opportunity to sit down in a classroom to chat with students about school activities.

The working man. Being a Principal requires a lot of paper pushing. Dr. Bane confides that desk work is his favorite part of his job.

Have All the Luck

King Steve Girtten

argue

Kings of the quads

Dainty dish. In the pie eating competition, Dexter Nebrida is all out to win. With his hands tied behind his back he strives to finish his cream pie first.

Appealing applause. After Steve is announced BMOC King at the dance, Scot Flores and his escort Elsa Woolverton give congratulatory applause.

Let's dance. King Steve and Debbie slow dance to the sounds of Gary Alvarez.

Wild Frontier

Flash that tan. The BMOC candidates proudly line up for the bathing suit competition. The winner was Steve Girten, who received the most cheers.

Making an entrance. Walking to the front of the gym, Mike Webb and his escort, Ana, stroll with pride as their names are announced over the loudspeaker.

Angie: Espero tengas un verano muy suave. Asi un placer averte conocido que date como eres no cambies, eres muy suave. Te veo el otro año.

Tu amiga. 6/14/85
Luz Esquivel.

Cheek to cheek. At the dances students at CPH get their chance to dance 'cheek to cheek' with that special someone.

Eyes that wander. Rafa casually scans the room for possible dance partners.

Relax. These couples relieve their feet as they dance slowly to Sunset Mobile Sounds.

Let the Music Play

Dancing in the Dark. At the Homecoming Dance three of the five Homecoming queen candidates dance with their escorts.

Love locked. Mike and his partner dance in unison with the music at the Homecoming Dance.

Cool it now. At the Homecoming Dance, students get a chance to go outside and cool off.

The wild life. On one of Castle Park's many festive occasions Mickey Molnar, Tina Gallihugh, Nora Amaro, Susan Albers, Angel Temblador, and Ana Plandor show their school spirit by dressing for the Halloween costume contest.

Ghostbuster. Our famous ghostbuster, Ken Muraoka, has his hands full on Halloween ridding the school campus of all its infamous ghosts, goblins, and evil spirits.

Pandemonium. Lost in thought, Crystal Williams, dressed as a panda bear, waits patiently for the winner of the Halloween contest to be announced.

One cool dude. Coach Callahan enjoys portraying an Al Capone-type character on Halloween.

Fantasy feast. It looks liek the cruel ghoul wants to devour poor little bunny and Tweety Bird.

Thriller

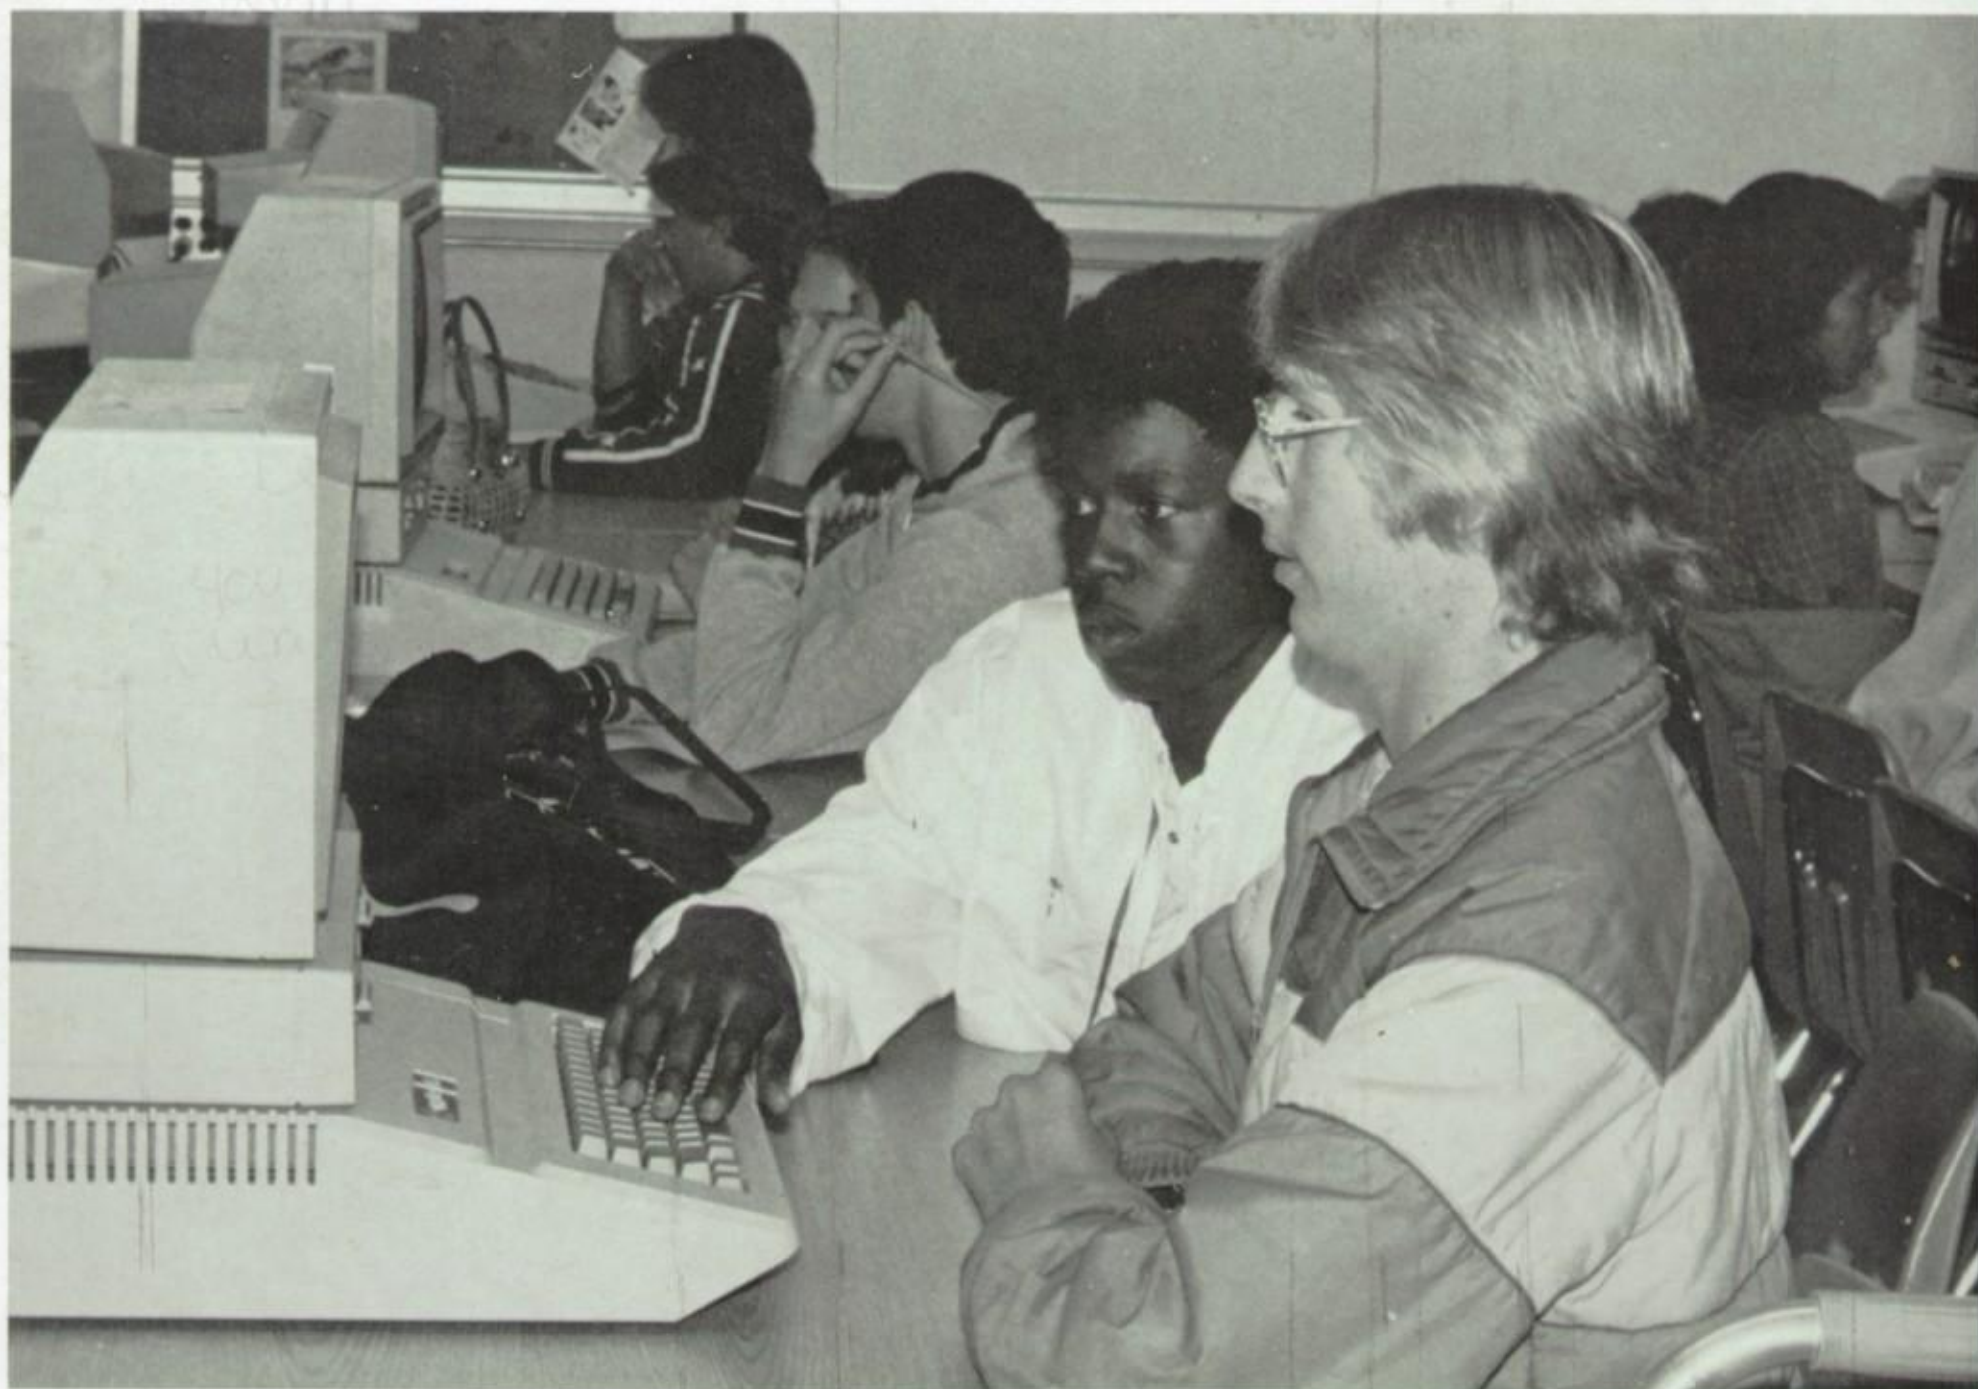

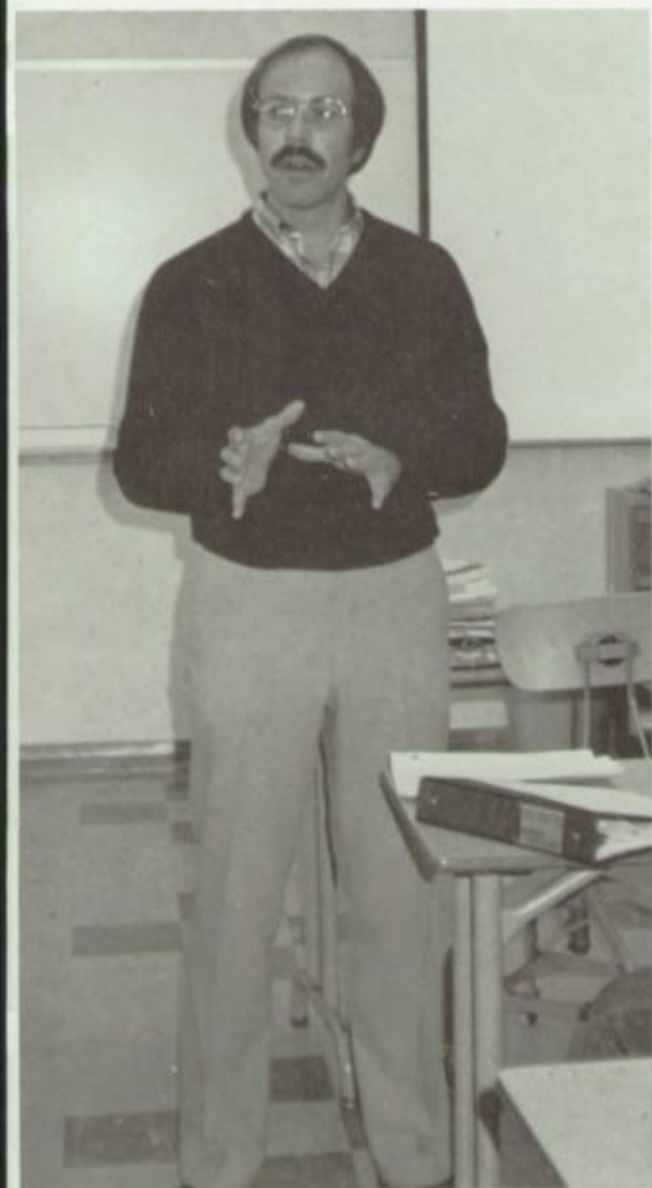

Dressed to kill. John Billups, Tina Gallihugh, David Carpenter, Paul Johnston, Wendell Johnson, and Jerry Thompson show off their costumes at lunch.

Computer Blue

Screen scene. Lisa Valdivia and her partner are preparing for the computer age by taking the new computer class at Castle Park.

The experience. David Smith and Antwon Lincoln gain knowledge of basic computer concepts by hands-on experience.

What's up? In computer science, Mr. Watt explains how simple things really are. Computer science provides an in-depth look at how computer programs are developed.

Monitoring Martin? Mr. Martin attempts to revise a program designed by computer literacy student, John Kreis.

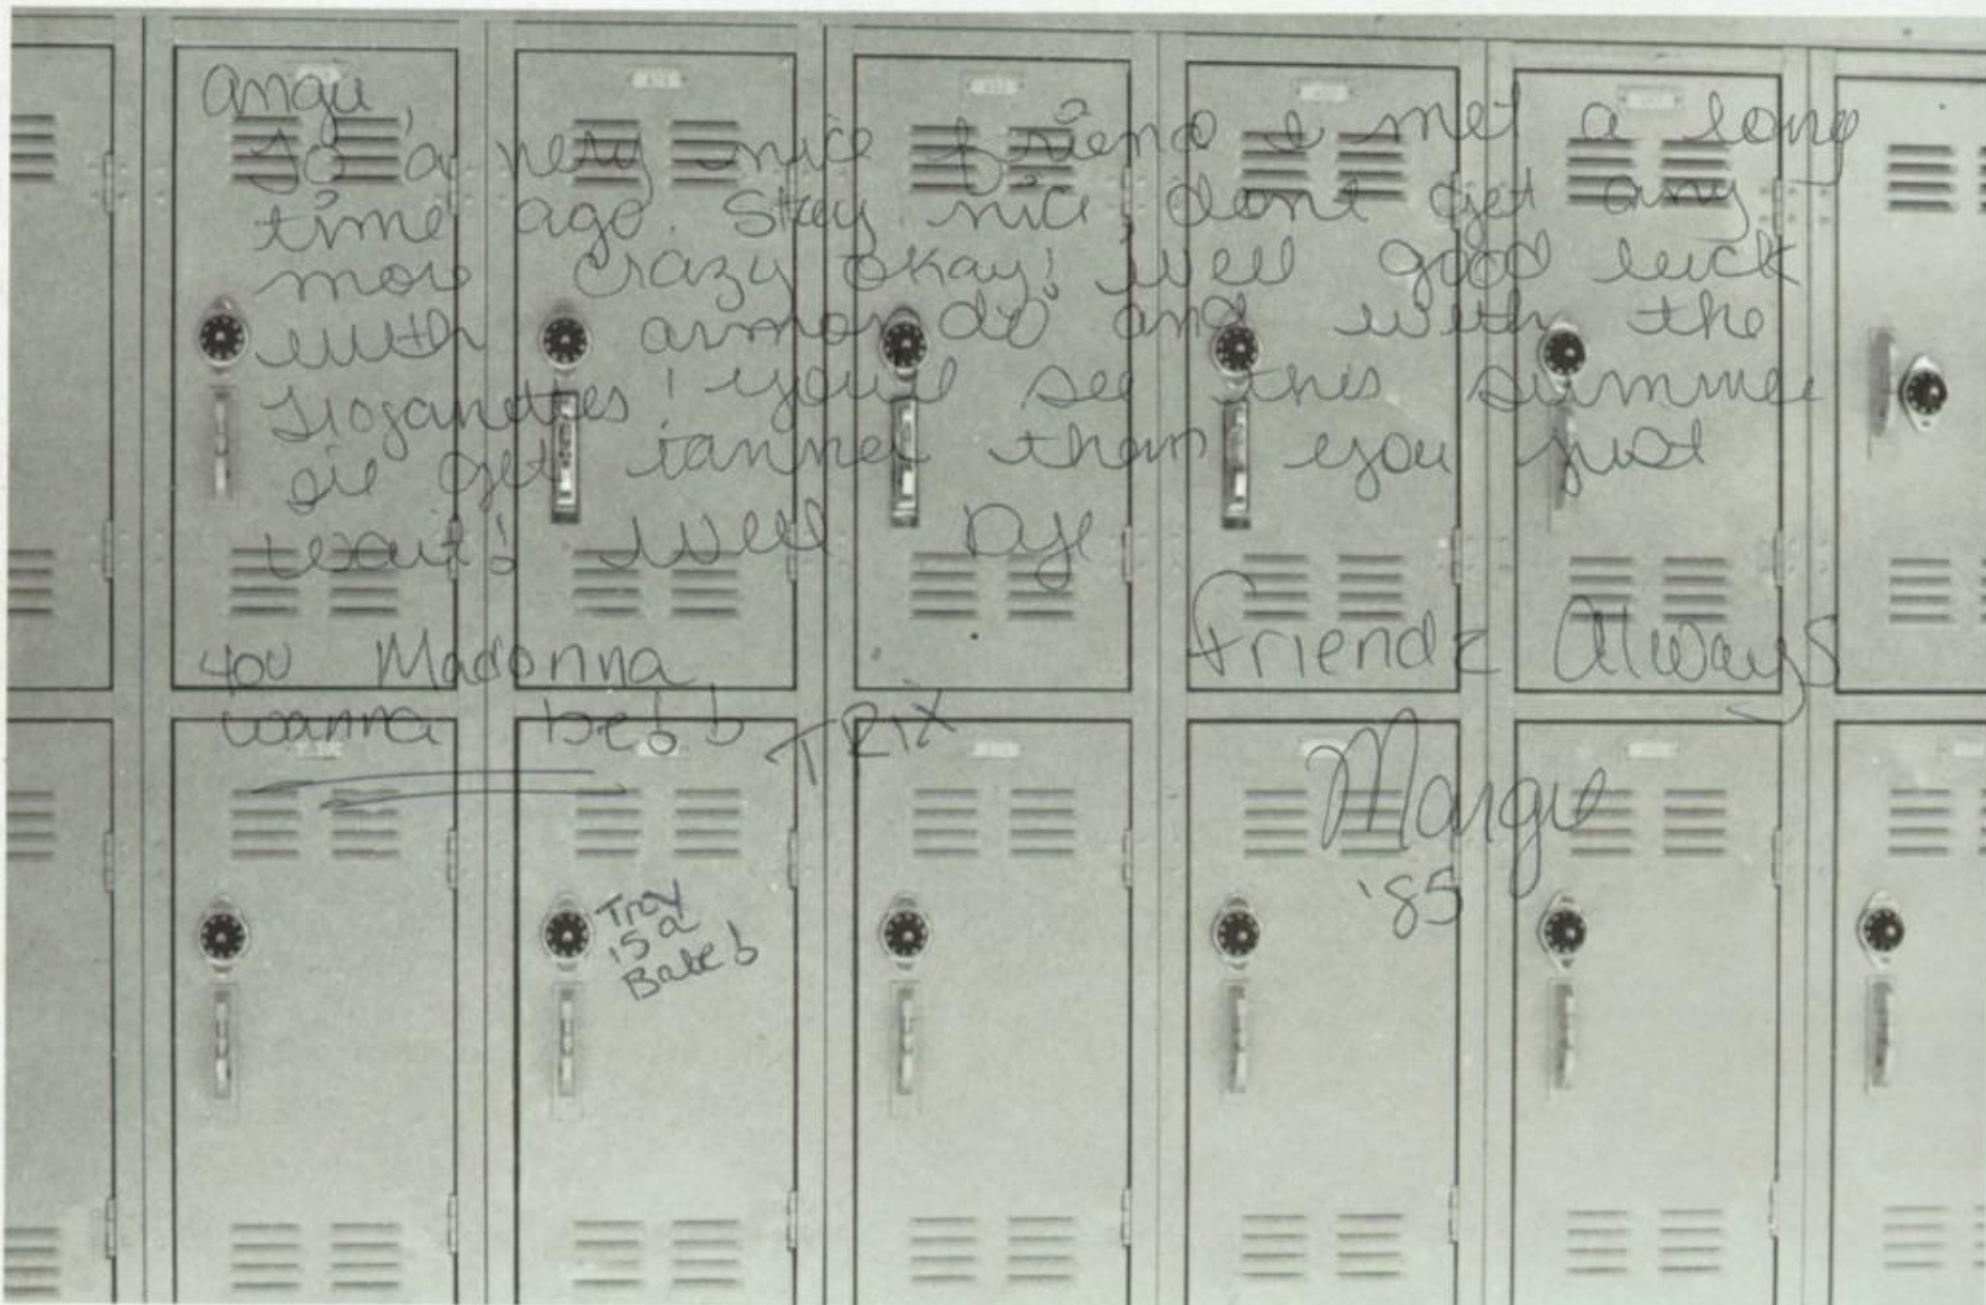

Head helper. Computer instructor, Ms. Head looks over Ed Pruitt's program. The new computer course leads to many computer literate students.

Fixed stare. Computer literacy students stare intently at a program they have made for their amusement.

Sardines. Some students wait patiently outside their lockers for their chance to get in and get what they need for their next class.

Duo. Maricela Romo looks through her locker for her needed books, while Veronica Thompson stands by for assistance.

Mind boggling. Surprise is an understatement for the feelings we experienced in September at the sight of our new lockers.

Mayday! Mayday! With homework building up at a fantastic rate, many students have neither the time nor the energy to organize their messy lockers.

Off the Wall

Alright, fan out! A group of students line up against their lockers in a frenzy for books and pencils.

Happy birthday. Although it might have been a secret earlier, the person who owns this locker is now known to be sixteen years old this year.

Football fans. Secret pals decorate the lockers of two football players right before the game with the Montgomery Aztecs.

Two's Company

Hand in hand. During passing time, Albert Lacson and Kelly Kiraly accompany each other to their fifth period class.

Love Talk. Hector Ruvalcaba and Mia Garcia find an intimate moment to share together during nutrition break.

Trendy twosome. Lunch time doesn't separate Turi Leasure and Henry Julian. They always find time for each other.

Time for two. Comfortably sitting under the tree, Jaime Rodriguez and Dolores Felan talk about sweet nothings.

Alone in the crowd. There are some days when Jimmy Ayala and Elizabeth Canciso are able to see one another only at school. They often have a lot of company.

Alone at last. Ray Boren and Clarissa Perez find a cozy place along the Senior Walk to get away from the crowd.

Urgent. Elizabeth Vera is delivering roses that were sent to some lucky persons in room 306.

Heart-n-soul. Kelly Renner, Vickki Hutson, Carol Pfeiffer and Natalie Ward decide to show everyone they are in the Christmas spirit.

Round and round. That's all I do thinks Lisa Peak as she delivers her candy-gram.

Do They Know It's Christmas?

Freeze frame. The counselors decide to get into the spirit this Christmas by decorating their door.

Any day now. The A.S.B. sets up their Christmas tree in hopes that St. Nicholas will soon be here.

Hello stranger! Parricia and Marissa portray two people who have just met.

The backbone. Ann, Jody, and Moises take time off from the lights to relax.

It's bow time. The entire cast of "Good Evening" takes a bow.

There's no Business Like Show Business

Oh so cute! Jackie and Stephanie portray mother and daughter.

Aln't she sweet! Kerri displays her talents as a solo actress.

Dedicated disc. Millions of copies of this Band Aid record raised money for the starving people of Ethiopia.

Heavy metal. Marissa Flores needs no special exercise equipment. She gets all of the workout she needs carrying around her bracelets.

Snazzy sneakers. Not everyone decorates their shoe like Sanford Slack does.

Do What You Do

Economy-sized. T-shirts have always been a favorite with high school students. This year they seemed to be larger than usual. Selena and Kelly also have their message printed on a grand scale.

Kick it around. If sports is your bag, there's a new one to get a kick out of. The object is to keep the Hacky Sack off the ground using only the lower part of your body. Lined up to get in the action are Henry, Brian, Edward, Charles, and Jesse. Ricky Julian has it under control, while Tracy spectates.

Puttin' on

Glamorous Life. Wearing a majestic, off-the-shoulder dress, Lisa Valdivia awakens the eyes of the audience.

Strolling along. On her way to a garden wedding, Gabriela takes a short cut through the park.

Gigolo. George Manly flashes his cool way of attracting the girls' attention.

the Ritz

Best dressed. Walking along the stage, our hostess, Mrs. Gagnon, proudly shows off her glamorous fur coat.

Enchanting attire. Aurora gracefully models her appealing Quincenera dress, made of lace and satin.

White wedding. Displaying this glorious gown, Michelle Waire carefully exits the stage area.

Satin garment. Modeling this elegant satin formal, Jennifer Marnik shows us the latest in fashion for special evenings.

Ole! Mary Mudry relaxes and avoids the sun during Hat and Sunglasses Day.

Boogaloo! "I say, old chap, would you mind removing your shades?" Marie Malstrom participates in Hat and Sunglasses day with a great sense of humor.

Here's the clash! Joli Gaskell, Estelle Arney and Lliana Ramirez display their pretty sides during Clash Day last semester. These three are but a few of the many spirited students who dressed up for this wild event.

That Kill . . .

Cub-busters! Estelle Arney warms up for Padres' Day, a good, solid hit. This event was scheduled to show appreciation for the National League champions, the San Diego Padres, when they returned from Detroit's World Championship.

Double-delight. Estelle Arney and Debbie Fletcher show their likeness during Twin Day last February.

Bear necessities. Michelle Walker carries her current loved-one during Teddy Bear Day on campus.

Distant Shores

Time out. Pausing for a moment during a basketball pep assembly, Sylvia Franke presents Dr. Bone with a flag from her native land, West Germany. Our principal then gave Sylvia an American flag as a token of her year at Castle Park as an exchange student.

Lingering recollections. Relaxing in the Senior Lawn, Sylvia ponders her life as a Trojan. School in West Germany is very different than in America. The students here take more pride and get more involved in their school than where she lives. Sylvia has found it fairly easy to make new friends, and she has helped to form a German class for next year.

Woodstock

Sandman. To avoid rough edges, Loren Johnson uses the disc sander to smooth things off.

Quality control. When a student is done, Mr. Oliver checks his work to make sure it's perfect.

Elbow room. Woodworking projects require lots of elbow grease and plenty of space.

Technical tester. The auto fundamentals teacher, Mr. John Brown, shows Manuel Osario how to check the electrical system with the volt/ampere tester.

Clean machine. Eric Mimms and Tony Deddeh are setting up the EPA-75 Pollution Testing Machine.

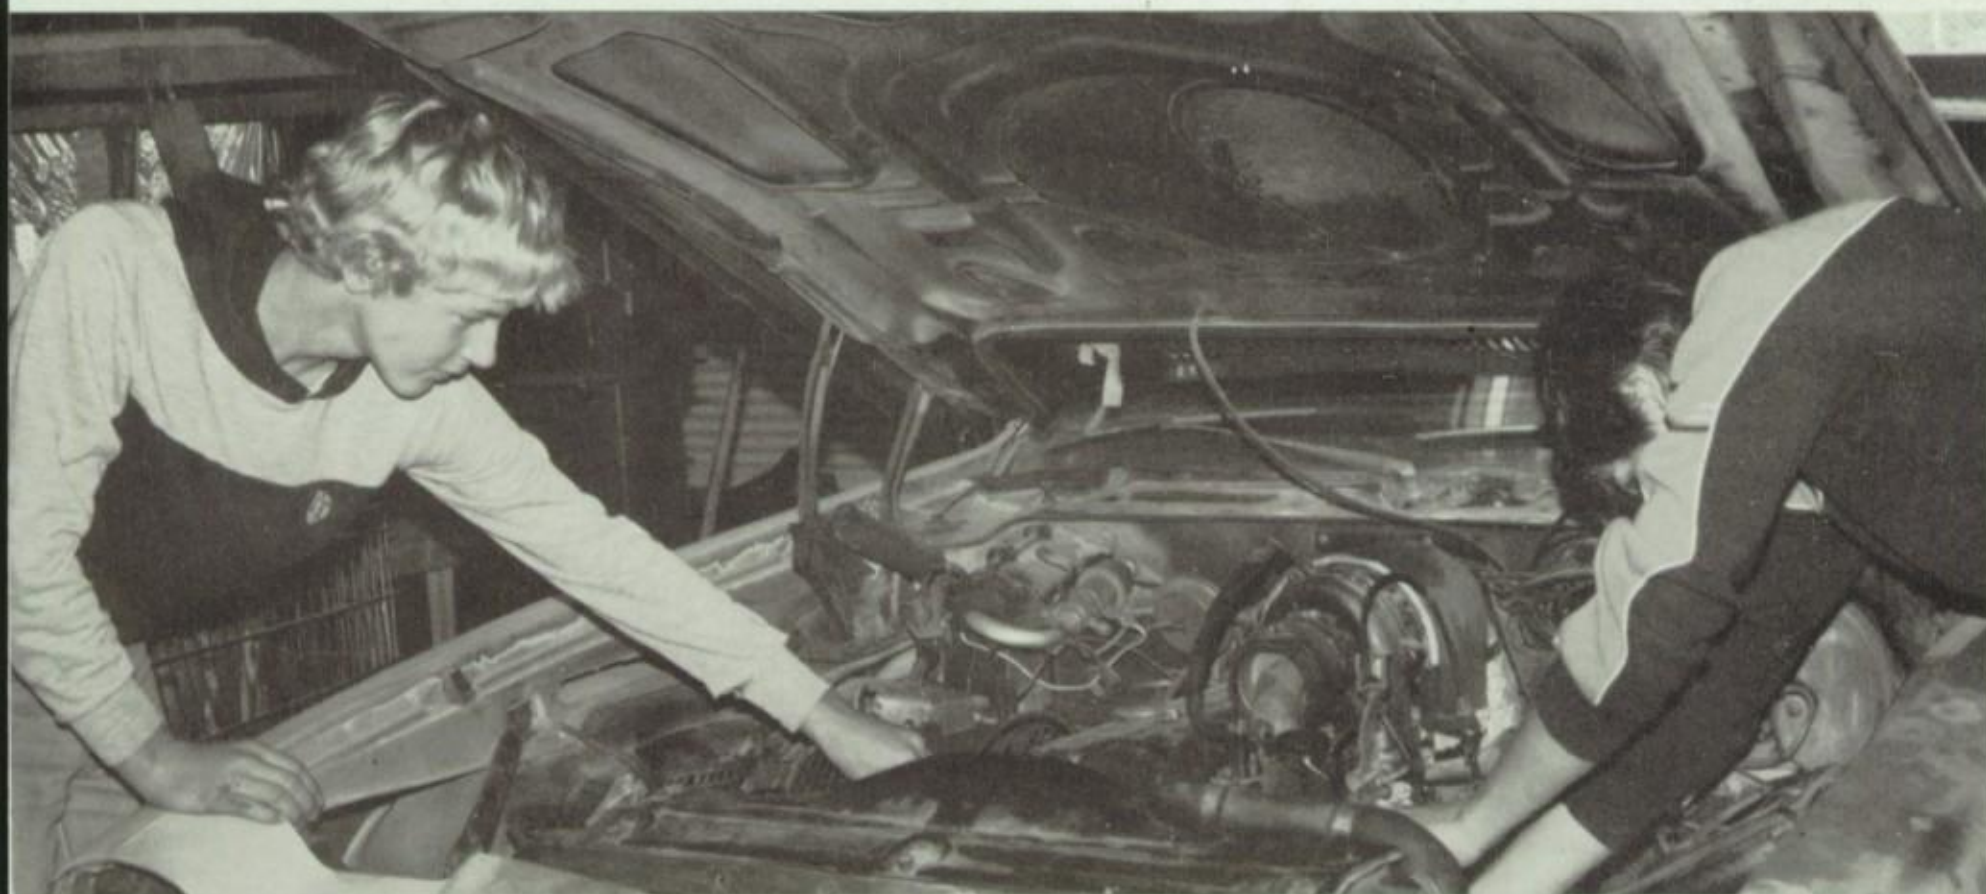

Quick stop. Turning the rotor, Jim Alejandria and Steve Taylor work on a "brake job."

Let's Put It All Together

Check point. John Rendon and Jesus Gongora are checking systems with the "Sun" Engine Analyzer.

Smog test. Looking into the motor, Jim Alejandria gets a check on the pollution control.

Motor mouth. With the hood up, Chris Klevens helps a friend give the engine a turbo-charged tune-up.

General Public

Double decision. With many choices that the UA6 offers, Robert and Lailani have a difficult time deciding which movie to go to. Whether it's the UA6 on Third Avenue or the Mann's Theater in Plaza Bonita, movie theatres are more and more a favorite place to go for students during their leisure time.

Top three movies of '84/'85 according to survey of 100 Castle Park students.

1. Beverly Hills Cop
2. Purple Rain
3. Ghostbusters

Ain't afraid. Ghostbusters, a comedy starring Dan Akroyd and Bill Murray, went to the top of the movie charts. Helping with the movie's success was the song "Ghostbusters," sung by Ray Parker Jr., which also went to the top of the charts. Inspired by the movie and song, a ghostbuster t-shirt is seen on John Billups.

Purple pandemonium. Mystique and style have brought much attention to Prince, one of this year's most successful artists. With such songs as, "When Doves Cry," and "Darling Nikki," Prince has inspired many to duplicate his wardrobe and buy his posters and albums. As anyone can see from her everyday dress and room decor, Tina Gallihugh is no exception.

Crazy music! Norman Moneda looks through the top hits at Licorice Pizza, a record and tape store, not a restaurant.

Top three songs of '84/'85

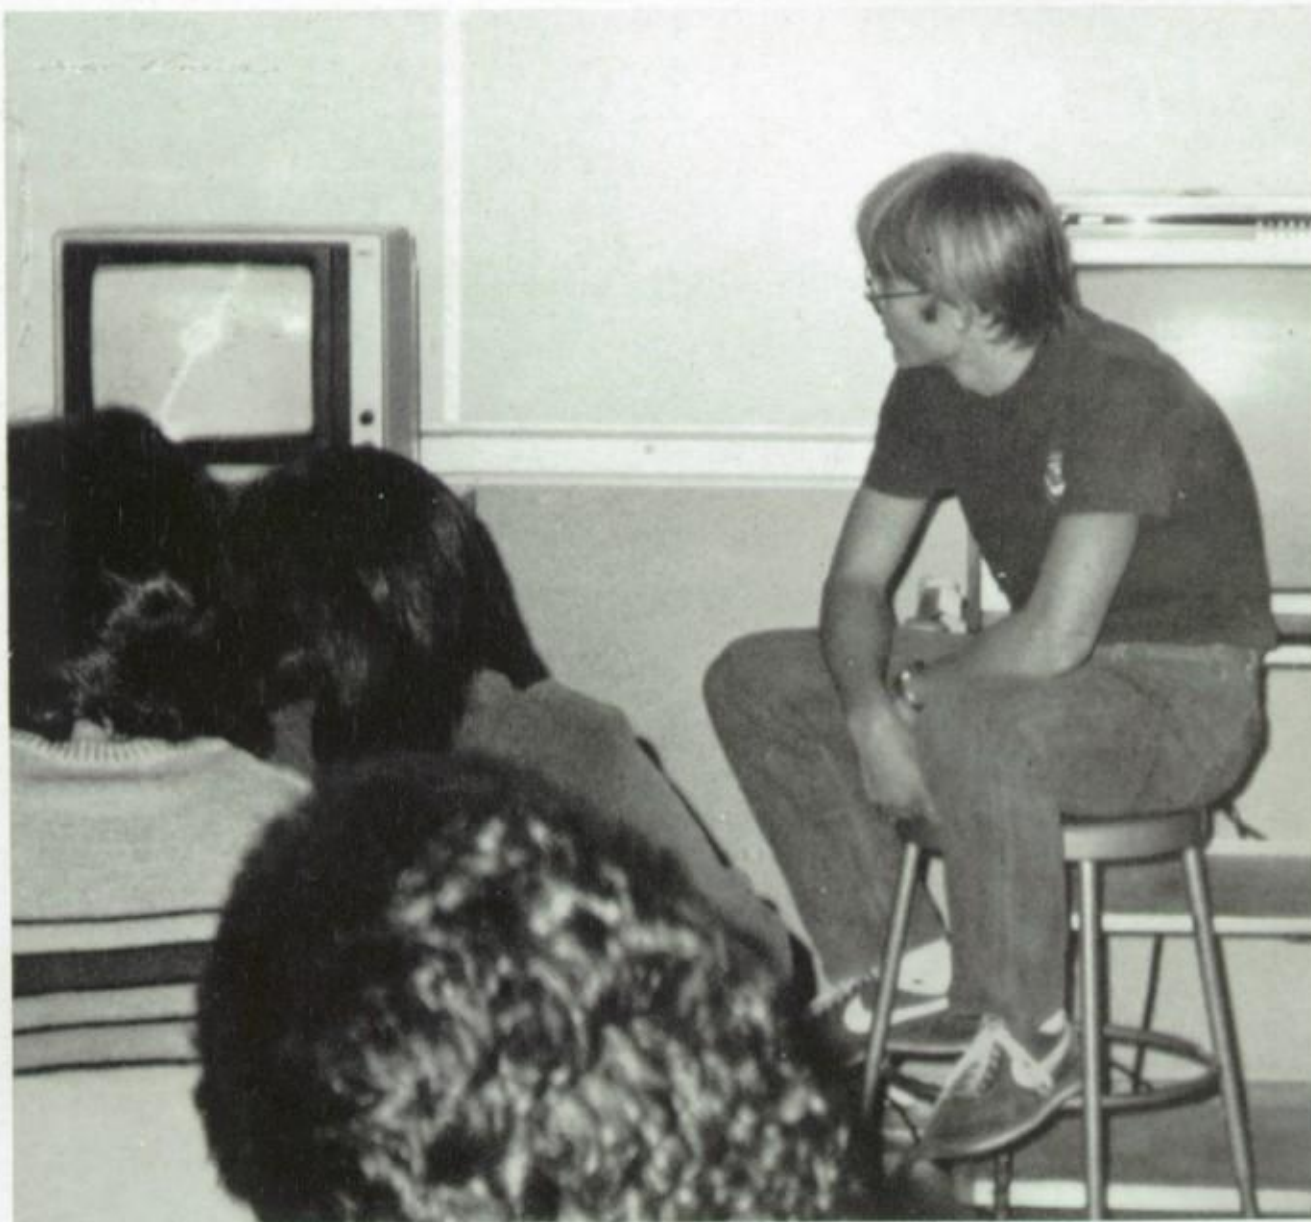

1. Tenderness
2. Pride
3. Wild Boys

Hungry for music? Not only is Licorice Pizza a place where students go to buy records, but it's also a place to purchase concert tickets and to rent movie videos.

Soldier Boy

Men in uniform. Women are fabled to go crazy over men in uniform. Recruiters, Jesse Sablan and James Jackson have another reason to appear on campus in military garb.

Watching the wheels. In addition to appearing on campus every Thursday, Mr. Sablan arranges presentations introducing the Army to young hopefuls. Erik Herrington views a laser disc outlining the aspects of Army life.

Little cherubim. Mr. Gacaya, the Naval recruiter, wears a cherubic smile for this occasion. He comes on Wednesdays to show teenagers what opportunities the U.S.N. has to offer.

On the go. As Tribune of Pep, Clarissa Perez is the president of the Pep Club. As part of promoting school spirit, she organizes pep rallies.

All action. Many of the activities shown on the calendar of events located in the A.S.B. are planned by Estelle Arney, Tribune of Activities. Dress up days and class competitions during assemblies are among the things organized by Estelle.

Finishing touches. After a lot of time and effort is put out by Tribune of Art, Susan Albers, a poster is completed. Susan is not only kept busy making posters but she also makes the pep ribbons and is the president of the art guild.

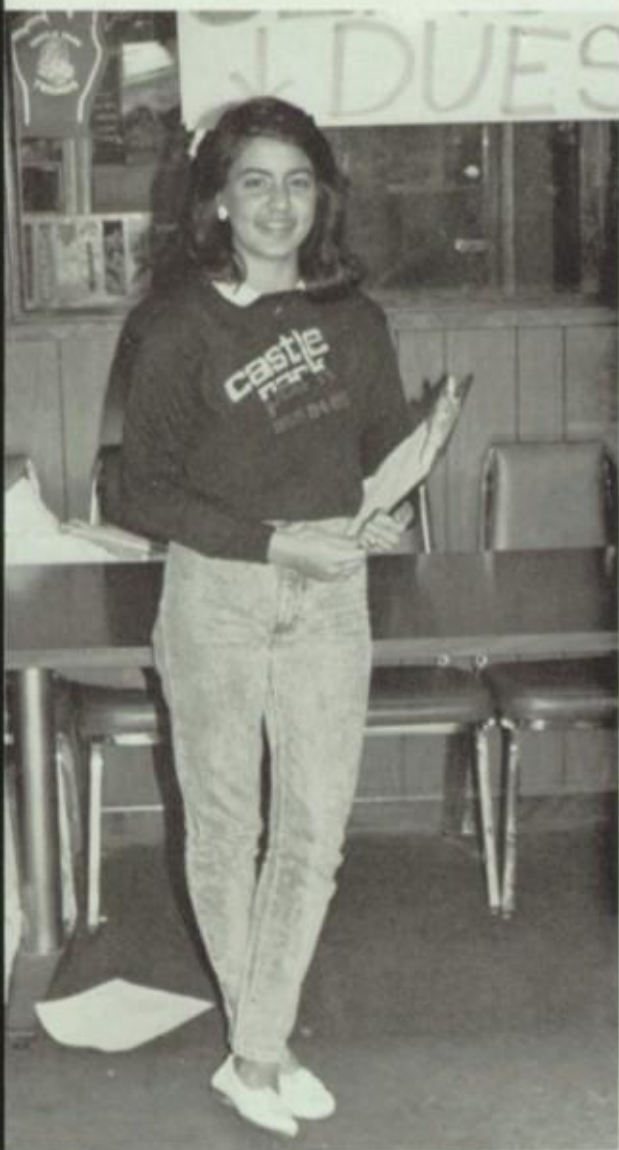

A.S.B. officers. President, Joker Jenkins, Vice-President Judy Mascarina, Secretary, Debbie Fletcher, and Attorney General, Ilana Ramirez.

They Work Hard for the Money

In the money. The balancing of books is one of the jobs Amy Melvin must perform as Tribune of Finances. Another is counting the money, a task which brings a wide smile to her face.

Putting it together. The assemblies that all the students of Castle Park enjoy are put together by Elsa Woolverton, Tribune of Assemblies. Deciding who will perform at the assembly and what the agenda will be is part of the process of making one successful.

Vote me in. While sitting at a desk inside the A.S.B., Arnold Damasco, as Tribune of Elections, reviews the results of recent balloting.

Spreading the news. The position of Tribune of Publicity requires the ability of communication with people. Sandi Koenig demonstrates this well while discussing business on the phone.

At your service. Inside the A.S.B., Jo Pincek is often found by the cash register or helping with sales. As a Tribune of Service, Jo is kept on her toes with the many jobs involved with concessions.

You Don't Have to Be a Star

Library leader, Ms. Pugh conducts a CSF meeting during second period in the library.

CSF President: Sandra Aguayo.

Say what? CSF members are jarred out of sleepiness at the mention of possible future CSF activities.

Attention, please! During the CSF meeting, all attention is directed at Ms. Pugh.

Fame. This year, the band's hard work and dedication was rewarded with the privilege of performing before 60,000 Padres fans prior to the National League championship game.

Director: Del Bangle.

The Inspiration. By playing the traditional fight song, the band arouses the crowd and inspires the team to victory.

I'm still standing. Drum Major, Junior Cacayan.

I Can Hear Music

Perfect harmony. The band's tradition of excellence is exemplified as the band marches proudly in the Fiesta de la Luna Parade.

Night moves. Among all the band's performances, those that will be best remembered by students are the spectacular half-time shows the band performs.

Freeze frame. Becky Castellanos concentrates on playing, while marching in formation. She is just one person who makes our band the best.

Tall Flags: Don't

Straight line. After performing their great skills, the girls line up on the field for a last round of applause.

Officers, Front: Captain, Sheila Miana. Back row: Co-captain, Rosa Mara and Lieutenant, Elizabeth Consilio.

Marching On

Angie,
CONGRATULATIONS! You did real good at tryouts, you jammed! Well next yr.
we're gonna have a awesome drill team. Your gonna have so much fun at Parades & stuff its exciting! Especially these away trips we have you get away from home
& you meet a lot of cute guys, really cute guys! →

up the Trojan spirit while displaying their uplifting routines during a football pep assembly.

Proud as ever. Standing at attention, Tanya Windham waits patiently for her cue to start her routine.

Single file. Our sweepstakes-winning Trojanettes put on excellent performances during half-time to keep the crowd cheering.

Well It was really nice knowing you this year and I hope we become better friends in the summer & school. I hope your ready for summer practices

(OH BY!) its gonna take alot of work
I mean a lot of work but its sure
does pay off!
Well I better go
bye for now.
Frenz,
Shuley
Remember we are family now!

Hi there. At the Homecoming assembly our varsity cheerleaders welcome the alumni with their hello cheer.

Peppin' up. Sonia and Debbie do their best at a pep rally to get the crowd excited.

Caught in the act. Clarissa displays her Trojan pride to the alumni while radiating enthusiasm.

ashflow. Debbie chooses names at random to win prizes for wearing red.

Patty cake. The cheerleaders prepare to do a stunt, and to keep the crowd hyped, they clap their hands to a rhythmic beat.

Priceless and perfection. Toni has definitely polished her cheerleading skills to a fine art.

Let it rip. The football team destroys with pleasure the poster that the cheerleaders created during the week for the game against Sweetwater.

Teamwork. Being able to work together is a big part of the annual's success. Kelly and Albert put their heads together to solve a design problem.

Images: Poetry in Motion

Putting together a literary art magazine can be a very enduring task to undertake. However, this is the goal of Images, Castle Park's very own literary Magazine. Club members learn everything about the making of a magazine, from raising funds, doing layouts, editing, and putting the magazine into print. They also learn to appraise poetry and art, picking only the best from the selection. No other feeling is better than seeing something grow from mere ideas to the finished product. That's what Images is all about.

Busy bees. Rushing to beat the Images deadline, Dawna Thompkins and Betsy Ellis show their dedication by working hard at the typewriter.

A winner. One joyous parent screams for recognition that he has won the jackpot, while about him the other parents grumble in disappointment.

New addition. Money may not buy you love, but it can buy you machines for computer training, and new locks for all the lockers.

Fun and funding. The Bingo games provide over two hundred people with an opportunity for an evening of enjoyment each week. The money raised from the games gives the Trojan Foundation a chance to purchase some beneficial necessities for Castle Park.

Melting Pot

The Amer-Asian club is a social club which brings students of different ethnic backgrounds together. With the help of the officers, the club members participate in many activities during the year. The activities include picnics, house meetings, food sales, & car washes. They also participate in joint activities with other clubs on campus, & from other schools to get acquainted with other students & encourage school participation.

Rousing ribbons. Because pep ribbons are an important part of the Trojan tradition, the fall semester is a very busy time for the Art Guild. Susan Albers prepares some ribbons by the silk-screening process.

Interactions

Helping hands. This year the Interact Club held a canned food drive in support of a needy orphanage in Mexico. It was a successful goal, and many people had a good meal for the first time in a long while. Dr. Lassiter is this year's advisor, taking Mr. Watt's place.

Varsity Football

Against all odds. Quarterback Steve Girten runs through a surprised defense and gains big yardage and an important first down.

Football managers. Kristy Smith, Laura Arciga, Rosie Vera, Virginia Ramirez.

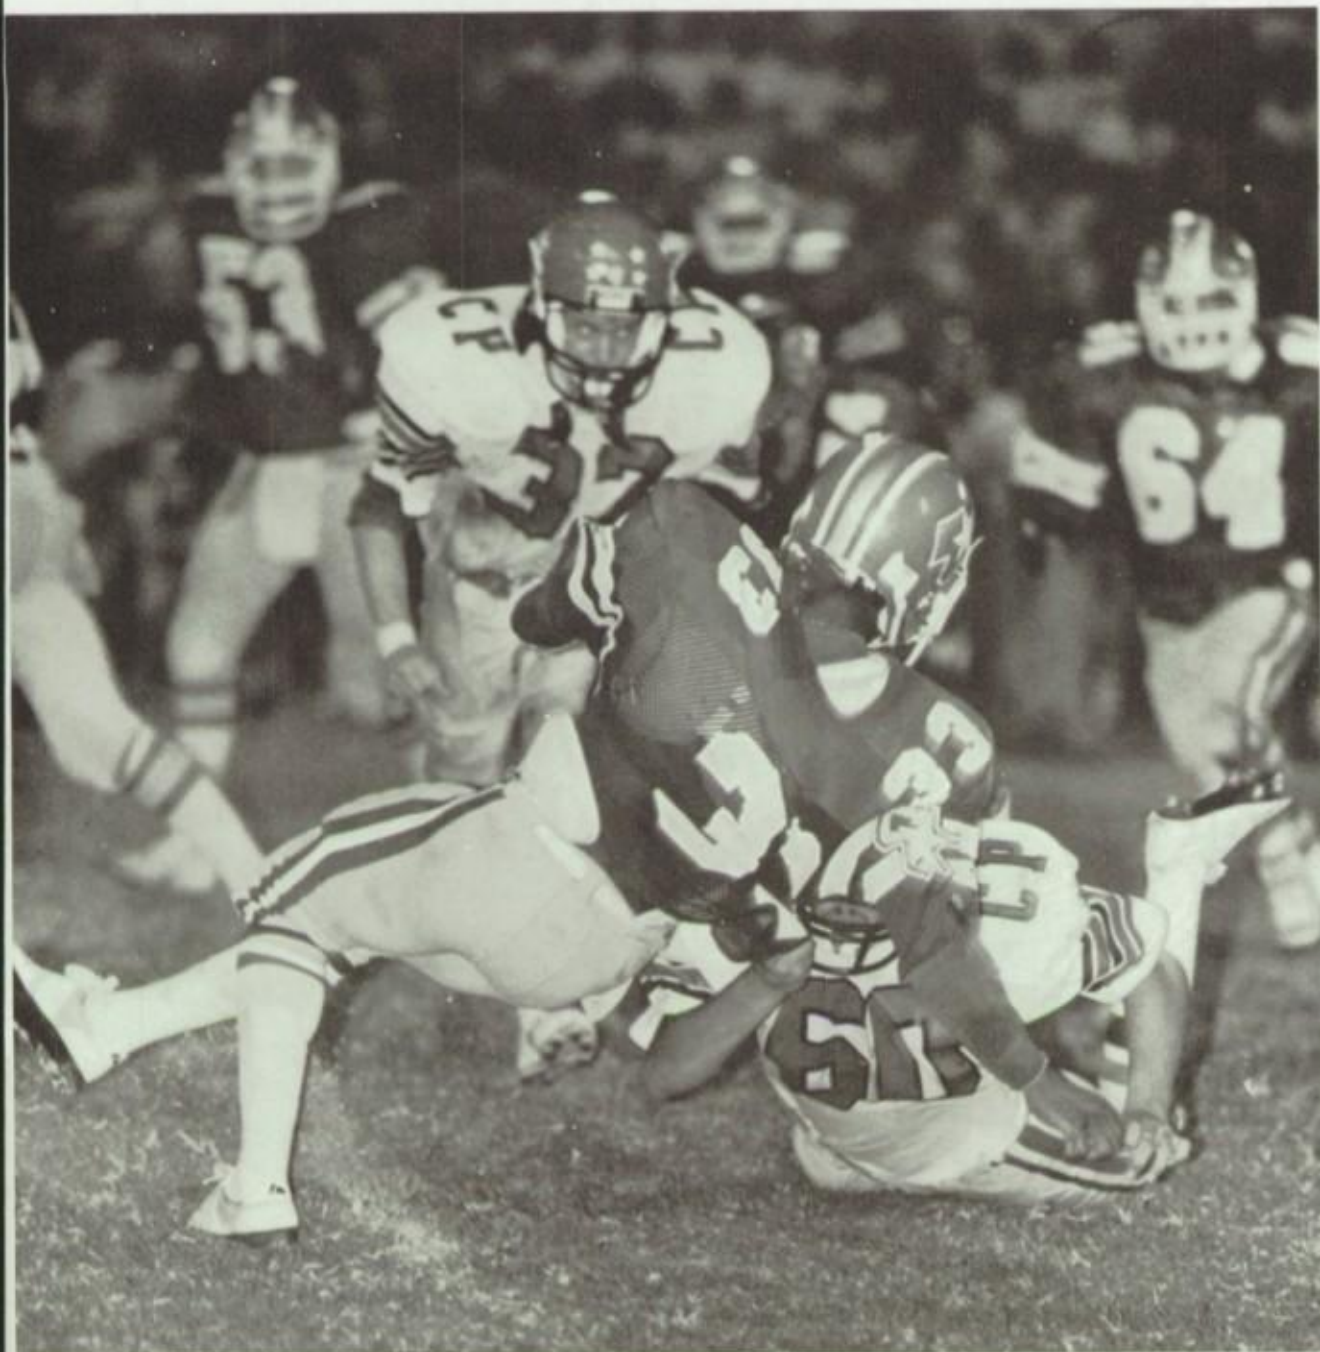

Big gain. Hector Ruvalcaba runs up the center and gets some good blocks by Kip Korzep to gain a Trojan first down.

Beat it. The aggressive Trojan Defense makes the Mariner's quarterback pay a price for throwing the ball.

The Wild Boys

This year's varsity football team represented Castle Park High School with the pride and courage all Trojans bear. Together as one the team weathered through extremely difficult defeats during this stormy season. Though they lost more games than they won, the team matured both mentally and physically this season. Inexperience was the main factor in this year's losing season. In time, this team will reestablish its place in the South Bay.

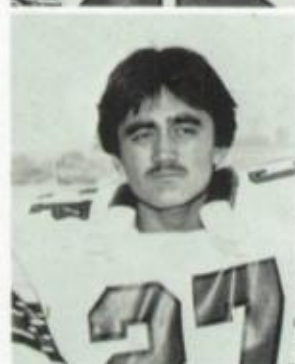

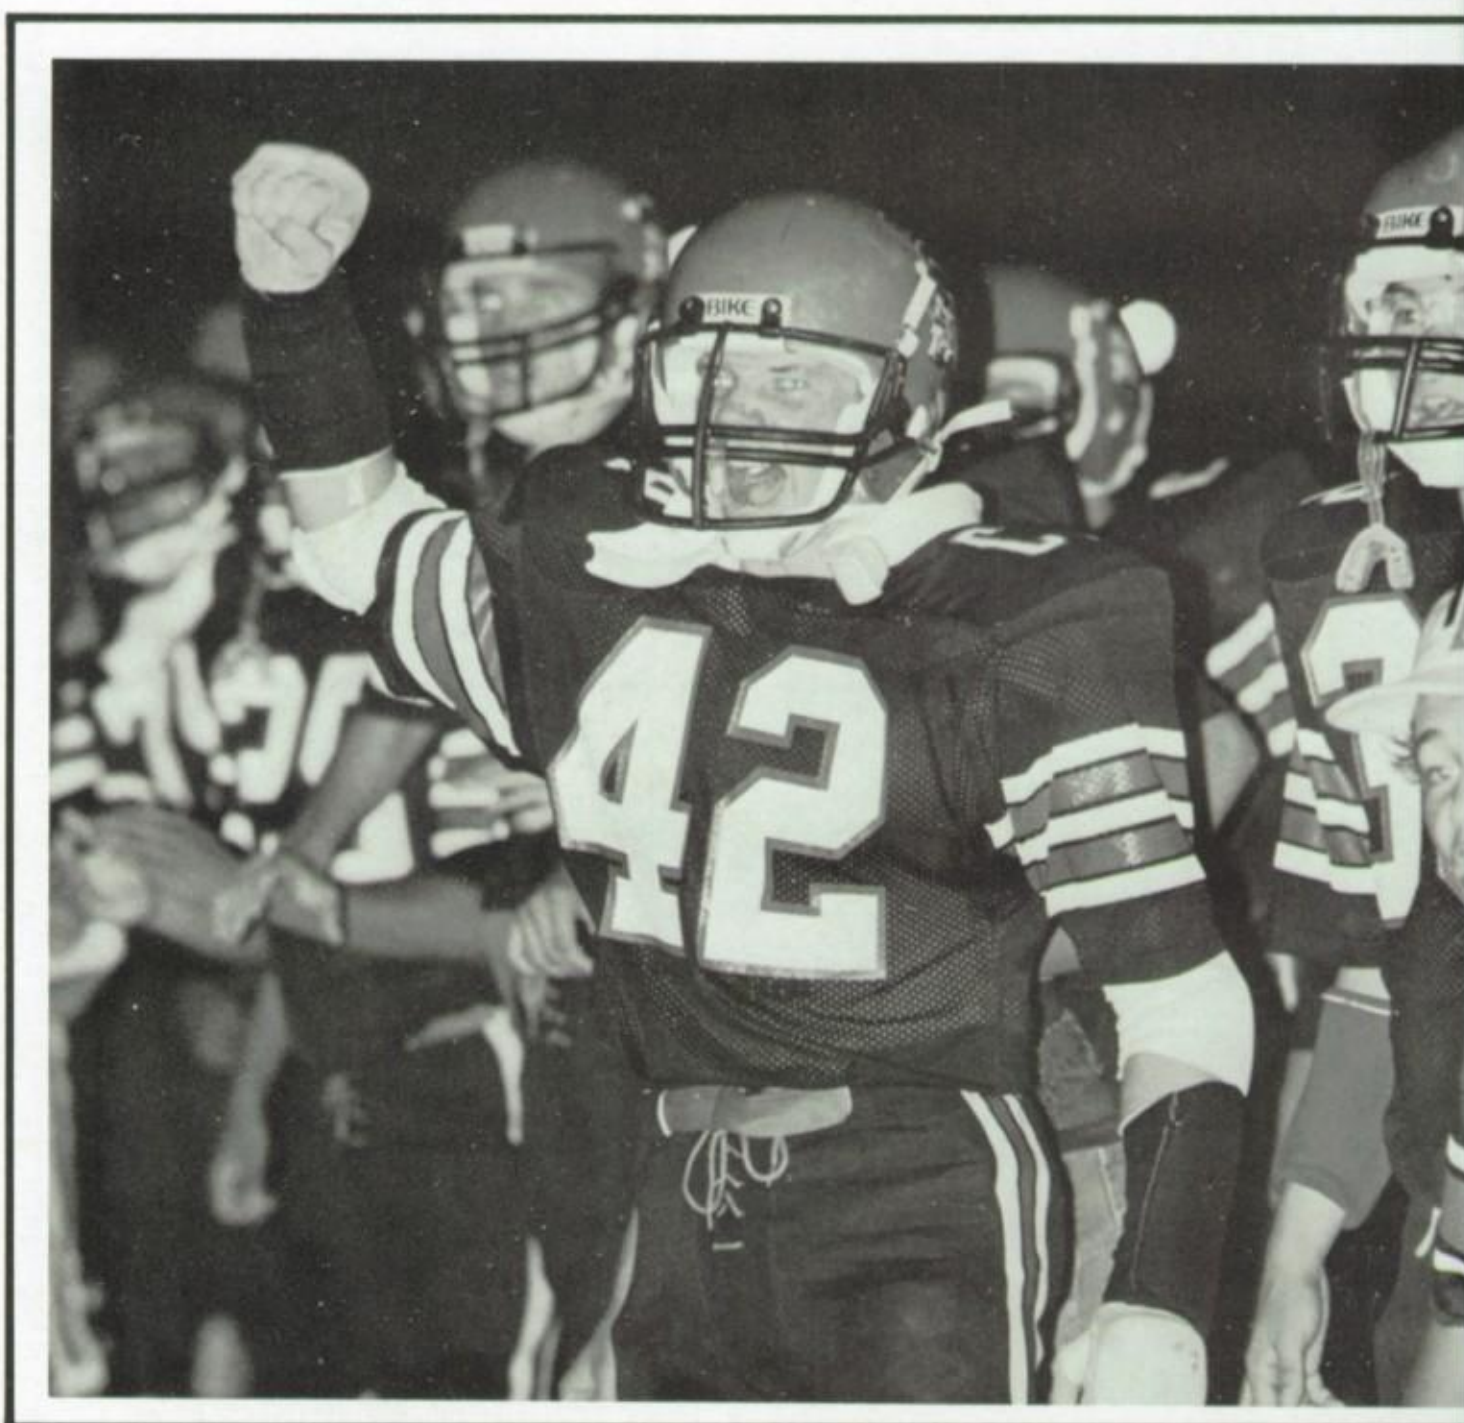

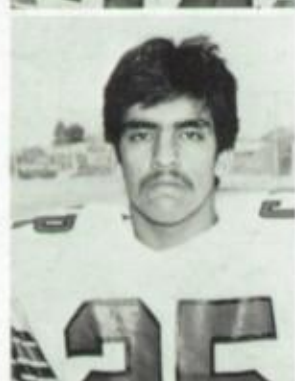

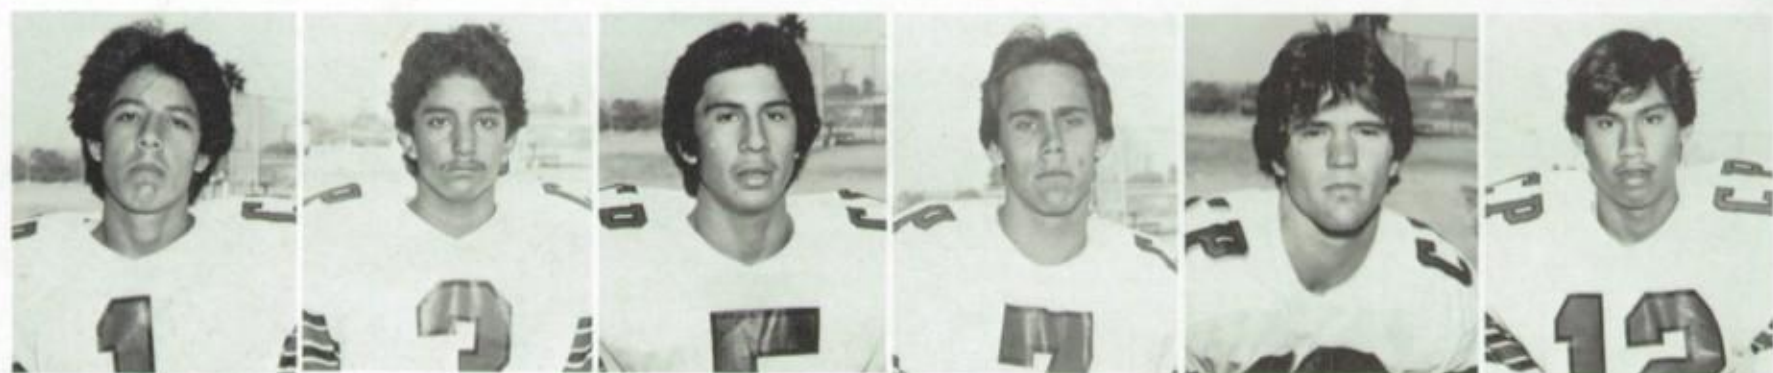

Defense. Linebacker, Joe Heredia, #60, sacks a Spartan for a loss of yardage in the face off between Castle Park and Chula Vista.

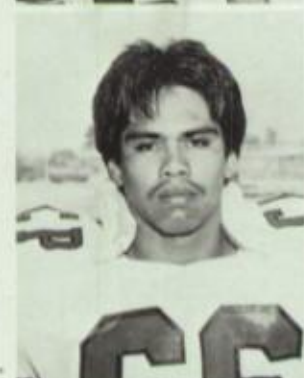

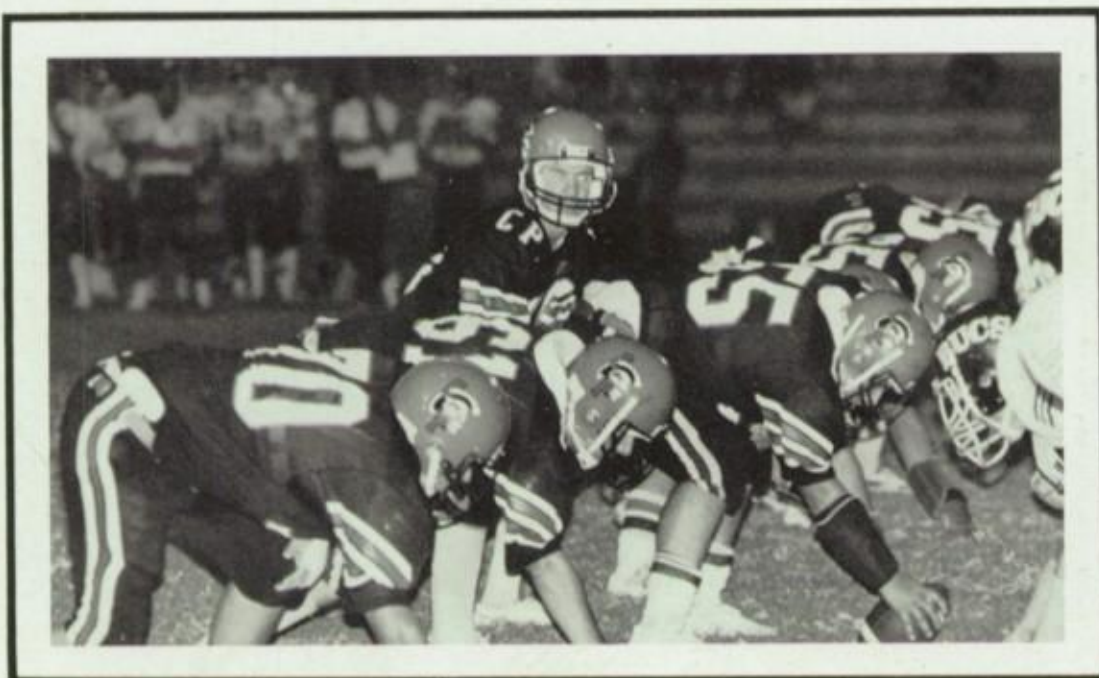

Stopped Cold. Defensive lineman, Genaro Delarosa, penetrates the Spartan offensive line and makes a spectacular stop in the second half.

Runaway. Mission Bay makes a big mistake by missing running back, Scott Flores, and letting him gain big yardage. This helps lead the Trojans to a victory.

Bonita Vista	61	C.P.	44
Coronado	39	C.P.	43
Mar Vista	30	C.P.	60

The C.P. J.V. grabbed the consolation championship at the Chula Vista Moose Tournament. After dropping the first game to Morse 77-37, C.P. defeated Hoover and a strong Mission Bay team to bring home the trophy. C.P. placed Bryan Cauly on the all-tournament team.

C.P. fielded a young J.V. team that ended up with a respectable 6-13 record, under the guidance of Coach Michael Callahan and Coach Victor Edwards.

Perfect shot. Frankie Salgado sinks the ball in for two points in a game against Montgomery.

Avid athlete. Barbara O'Brian is a regular on the athletic teams at Troy. Her presence is felt because of her winning attitude and her love of competition. The Speculum staff salutes you, Barbara.

Terrific trio. The teams at Castle Park seem to always provide an opportunity for exceptional contribution for Ura Malae, Cathy Thompson, and Laura Inzunza. Their dedication to the Trojan tradition of excellence inspires many of their teammates.

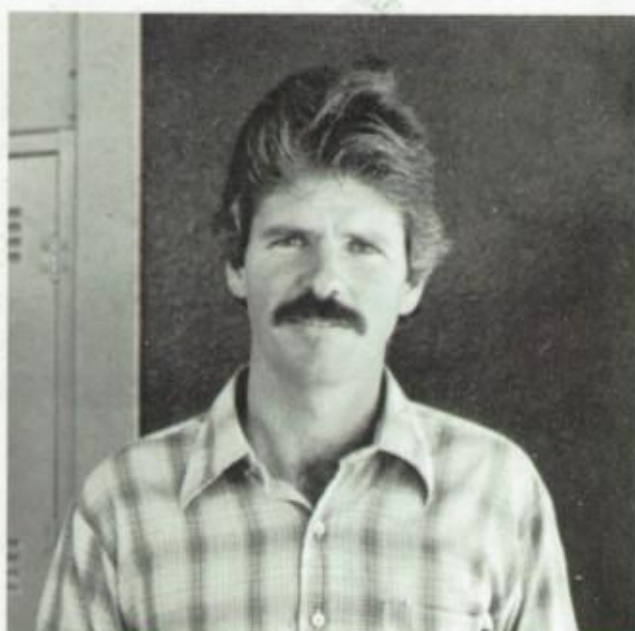

The Best That You Can Do

Although volleyball is just one of the sports which interests our female sports stars, Uta, Barbara, and Laura find that playing volleyball helps them get in shape for the other seasons. They also find the game a challenge, and an enjoyable outlet for their energies. Many of the skills and attitudes they use for playing volleyball can be transferred to other sports.

Runner

The trainer, Coach Grider is credited with leading Trojans to victory by using discipline and encouragement. Managers: S. Albers, D. Cousins, M. Cusack, S. McCracken, and E. Woolverton.

Ready, set, go! The Trojan's cross-country team runs a course laid out across rough land. This course is quite painful to those who are not familiar with it.

The Team. Ismael Guerrero (mgr.), Jim Billings, Noelle Barradas, Jennifer Ruble, Sue Tessler, Chris Contino, Debbie Billings, Victor Yvellez, Francis Grisez, Dennis Elliott, Ed Wagner, Jacky Ruble, Debbie Cousins, Bryon Wischstadt, Rod Mata (mgr.).

Loosen up. Before a race, runners must stretch and, if necessary, tape their legs to avoid any type of muscle injury.

Team salon. Girls with long hair sometimes fasten it back so it won't be creating any hassle while running the race.

Best man. Francis Grisez is the fastest on the team and in our division. With encouragement, he comes up first in all the races.

Pacing it. Good strategy in distance racing is finding an easy-going bear to stick with until the finish.

Super Steve. This is definitely a guy who knows what he's doing. Steve has been a member of the football team for 3 years and has much success with the sport. Steve says that he first played football "to make my dad proud." He also says that his father was the biggest influence on his athletic career. What father wouldn't be proud of a son like Steve?

Fantastic Francis. Francis displays his incredible running talent in one of his many first-place finishes. Francis plans to attend a University after high school. He also would like to participate in either the '88 or '92 Olympics.

Tough guys?! Steve, Frank, David, and Francis were chosen by the Speculum as the '84-'85 Boys' Sports Spotlights due to their outstanding athletic accomplishments.

Standing in the Spotlight

Dynamite David. Defense is what David is all about on the basketball court. David says that he wants to play for the college team that he attends, but afterwards he'll stick strictly to "streetball." David plays a major role in the success of the boys' basketball team.

Fabulous Frank. Frank is his name and receiving is his game. Frank has been involved with the football program for three years, playing J.V. his first and varsity his last two. Frank would like to play collegiate football but first he wants to work on his speed and endurance.

Sensational Steve. Showing his stuff during warm-ups, Steve, like any good athlete knows how important loosening up before practice can be.

The Boys

#2	Sal Arrequin	FB-HB
#3	William Pincek	FW
#4	Carlos Valdivia	FW-HB
#6	Carlos Fernandez	FW

Go for it. Ron Noel, #10, prepares to pass the ball, while Carlos Fernandez waits to put it away in the net.

Having a ball. Enrique Gonzalez, #9, prepares to fire the ball up to the center forward so the Trojans will get into scoring range, in the exciting match against Mar Vista.

Alone at last. Jaime Vargas, #11, finally breaks free from the Mariner's Defense and waits for a pass from the halfback.

Fancy footwork. Carlos Valdivia, #4, makes some good moves on the Devils' Defense, while Jose Palos, #16, prepares for a pass.

Steal away. Steve Alvarez, #17, swiftly steals the ball away from a Sweetwater Devil and passes it to the offense for a big play.

Super save. Goalie, Mike Chandler, makes a spectacular save in the Castle Park vs Montgomery game.

The Women in Red

The big D. Leti, Ileana, and Kim tackle the ball.

Coch Dave Jessen

oe trap. The Baron doesn't have a chance against auren Aguloar's move.

Hang a left. Troy's opponent will have to make a detour after Priscilla turns the ball.

Return to sender. It looks like a long way back up the field, but Roseanne Ruiz gets the ball started for Troy.

About face! Priscilla heads the ball in a great offensive display.

Lightning fast. In the 100 yard dash, Joker Jenkins, John Reilly, and Jim Billings pour out the speed to burn their opponents.

Pole vault. Huy Nguyen glides over the pole that is about 10 feet high.

Be First

Hand-off. In the 440 relay Jim Billings passes the baton to Brian Roberts. They, along with Joker Jenkins and John Reilly, are the members of a reputable relay team.

High jump. Steve Kane easily leaps over five feet in a single bound in his specialty.

Long jump. Varsity's long-jumper, Joker Jenkins, makes great distance into the sand pit every time.

Shot put. With all his might, Rudy Ibarra hurls the king size ball bearing over thirty feet.

Running With

Think fast. At the beginning of the track meet Noelle Barradas starts off the 440 relay race.

Lucky leaper. A tough competitor, Debbie jumps her highest and best for C.P.

Wind up. As she prepares to throw the discus, Michelle has to concentrate her energies.

The Night

Track Team. Back row: Coach Dawson, Coach Warren, Tina Garcia, Kathy Kane, Cristina Contino, Robin Pruitt, Susan Tessler, Maria Pitpir. Managers: Susie Kalhous, Michelle Krum, and Keri Vaughn. Coach Grider. Front row: Susan McCracken, Bich-Thuy Arzate, Debbie Cousins, Noelle Barradas, Debbie Billings, Elizabeth Lee.

On the run. During one of the longer races, Debbie and Susan strive to overtake the Spartans.

(We're) Highly Strung!

Back: Senior second baseman, Jaime Vargas returns to first base on an attempted pick-off by the St. Augustine pitcher.

Rack attack. Kip Korzep's quick hands and wrists make him one of the better hitters on the team.

New sparkplug. How does Troy spell relief? J-O-S-E P-A-L-O-S. Dominic Quintero looks on as Jose warms up with Henry Monreal before assuming control.

Don't stop. Outfielder, Eddie Moreno, has rounded third and is determined to make it home safely.

Back row: Charley Schoneboom, Mike Marks, Manuel Robles, Coach Del Schoneboom, Coach Bob Korzep, Eddie Moreno, Henry Monreal, Joe Heredia, Steve Gitten, Mgr. Estelle Arney. Front row: Jessie Palacio, Kip Korzep, Kevin Ryan, Jaime Vargas, Jose Palos, John Kreis, Tracy Tolbert, Louis Viscarra.

What rhythm! Quick reactions and sure hands are perhaps the greatest attributes of an outstanding third baseman like Charley Schoneboom.

Conference time. Catcher, Henry Monreal and Tracy Tolbert get together to discuss how they will pitch to the next batter.

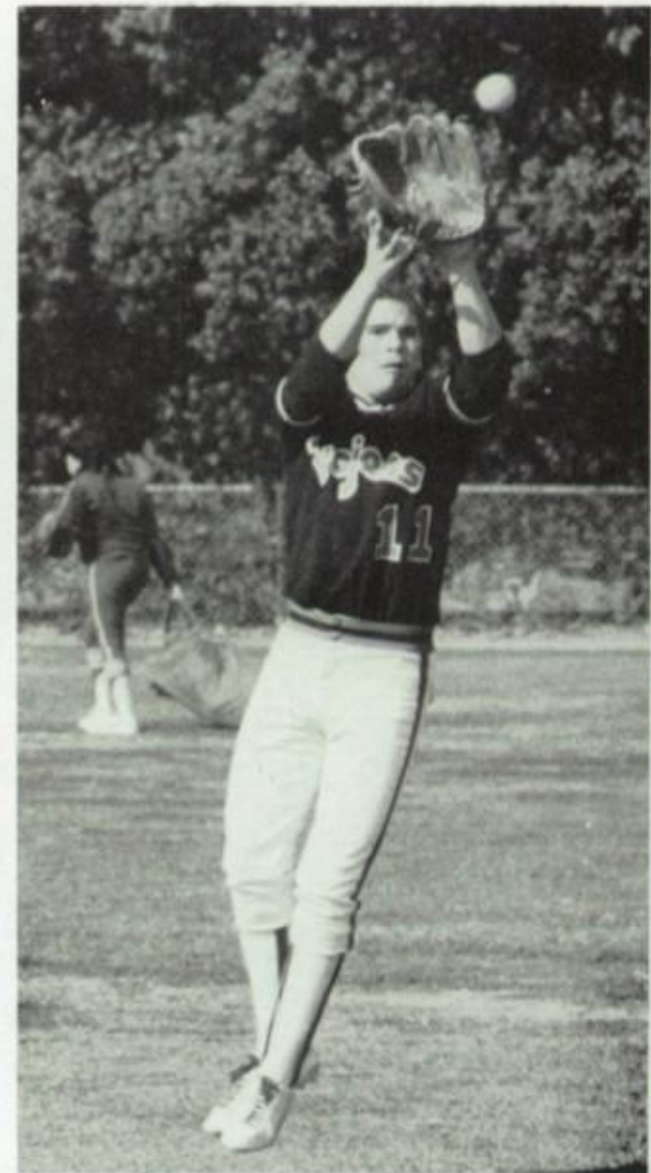

Special delivery. With a full sweep of the arm, Tracy Tolbert demonstrates his style of pitching, which contributed to the success of Troy's 1985 boys of summer.

Rack 'Em Up

Can't slow down. With all of his speed Cesar Gutierrez races to a base where he can be safe.

Jump to it. Jumping for the ball, Darin Husted is prepared to send the ball on its way.

Perfect pitcher. Getting ready to meet the batter, Alex Amaya winds up for a pitch.

Angie,
Well it was nice knowing ya", Good luck with Trojanettes
Love
Cathy

85-86
TROJANETTES

Let's Active. Scattering for the ball, the Trojans show they are ready for action.

Play ball. Up to bat Glenn Millican is all set for a home run.

Varsity Softball

Big D. Concentration and anticipation are two of Laura Inzunza's defensive strengths.

Follow-through. Trojan pitcher, Barbara O'Brien, shows the Lancers how it is done.

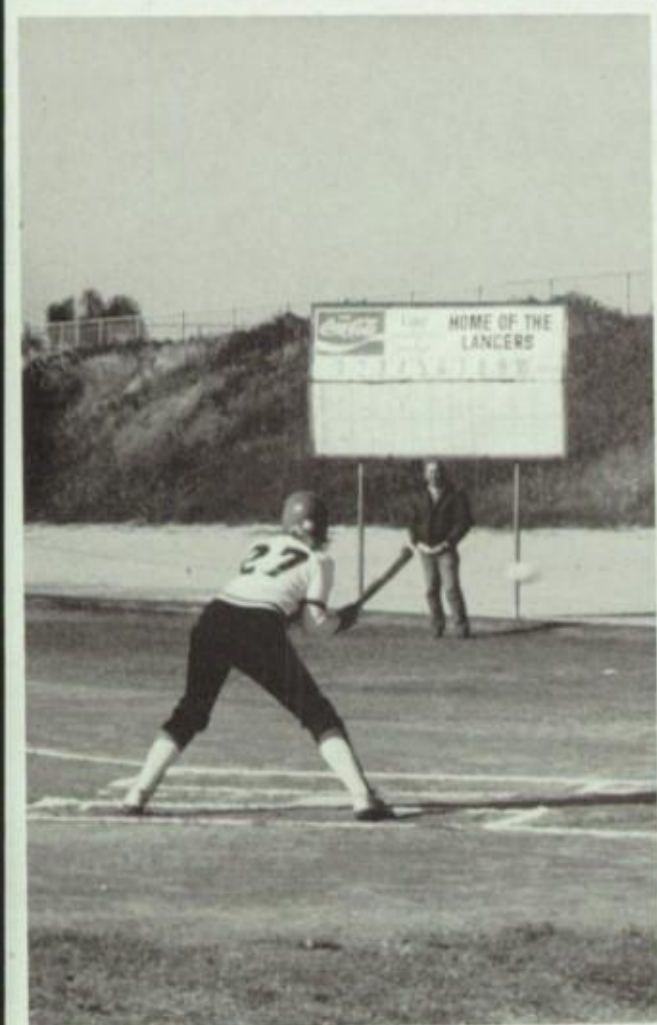

Varsity Softball Team: Coach Tim Tyler, Ann Hagstrom, Barbara O'Brien, Priscilla Murguia, Virginia Ramirez, Teri Uili, Stephanie Boggs, Sandy Gandy, Tracey Williams, Laura Inzunza, Stacey Ahrenstein, Laurie Tanzo, Manager, Geraldine Uvero.

Playing to Win

Team spirit. The girls on the varsity softball team know how important it is for them to work together in their efforts to defeat the Lancers. Starting the game with a team cheer gets the ball rolling.

Good eye. Stephanie Boggs shows the Lancer pitcher that she is going to wait for a good pitch.

Back up. An alert catcher is a great asset to the Trojan team.

The Heat Is on

On alert. Keeping her eyes on the batter, Martina Huertas is ready to run for second base.

Find it. C.P.'s basketball team scrambles to get the ball without fouling their opponents.

I Am Woman

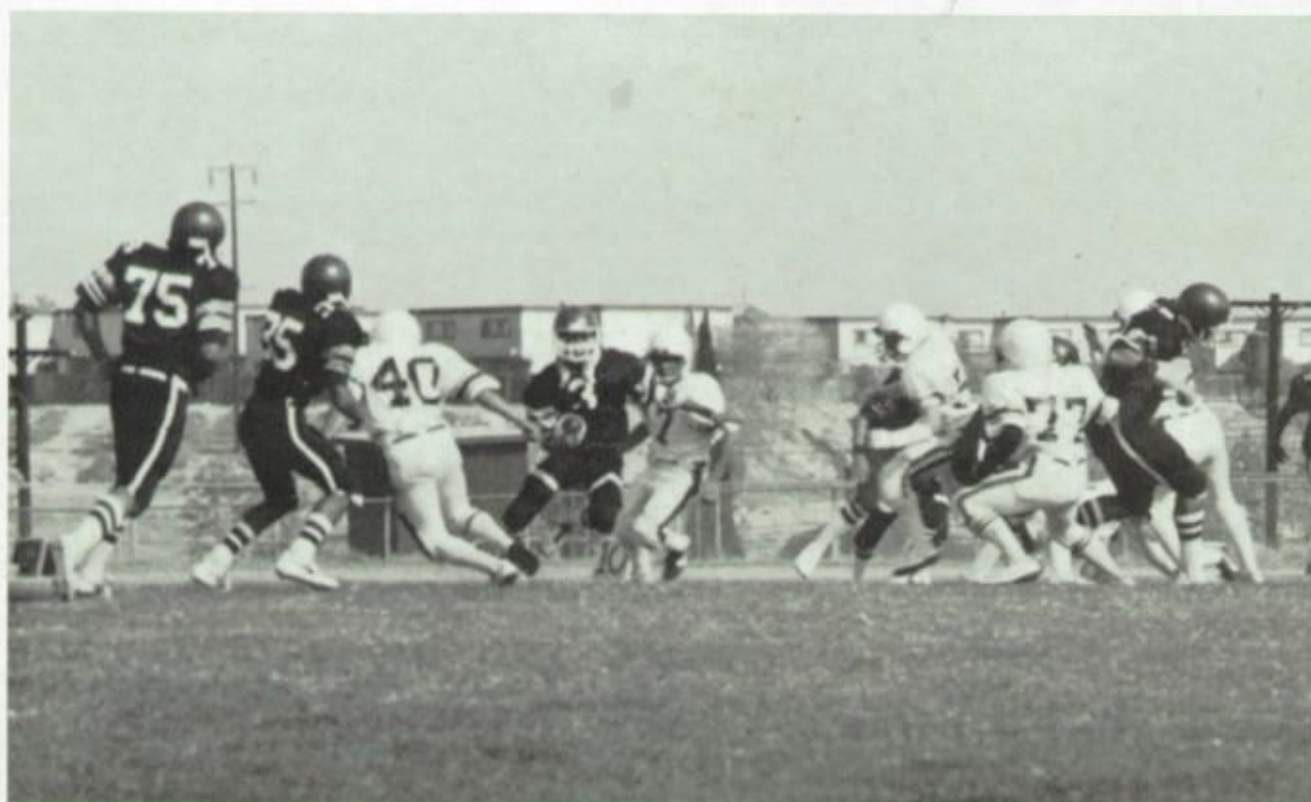

Powerhouse. Hard practice pays off for Pam Murphy with a shot to the outfield.

Hard spike. The Trojans warm up for an exciting game.

On Your Toes

Runner up. Ricardo Del Rio of cross-country knows courses can be torture to amateurs. Some courses have lots of hills covered with rocks, which are easy to slip and fall on.

Burnin' em. David Carpenter, with the help of the team, scrambles through Hilltop's defense for a score.

Free throw. John Stanton takes advantage of a foul and shoots for the bonus in a game against Chula Vista.

Get the Balance Right

Spiking it. Eagerly waiting, Rachel Resolme is ready to give the ball a spike.

Save it! Latoria Nettles falls to her knees, hoping she can save the ball before it touches the floor.

Warming up! Before the match the team warms up so they're ready for their opponents.

Dinking it. After having been given a set, Uta hits the ball enough to make it go over the net.

Setting it. For a better hit Stacey Ahrenstein pushes the ball to teammate Ura Malae.

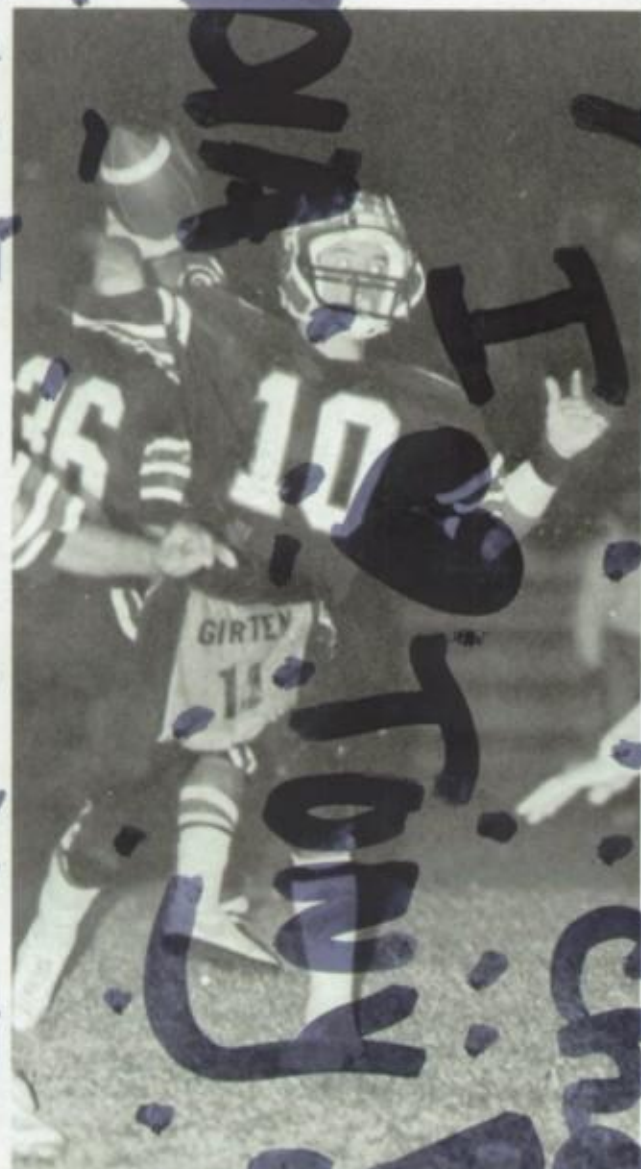

Reaching high. Jumping up, Ilana Ramirez hits the ball over the net with the support of Priscilla Murguia.

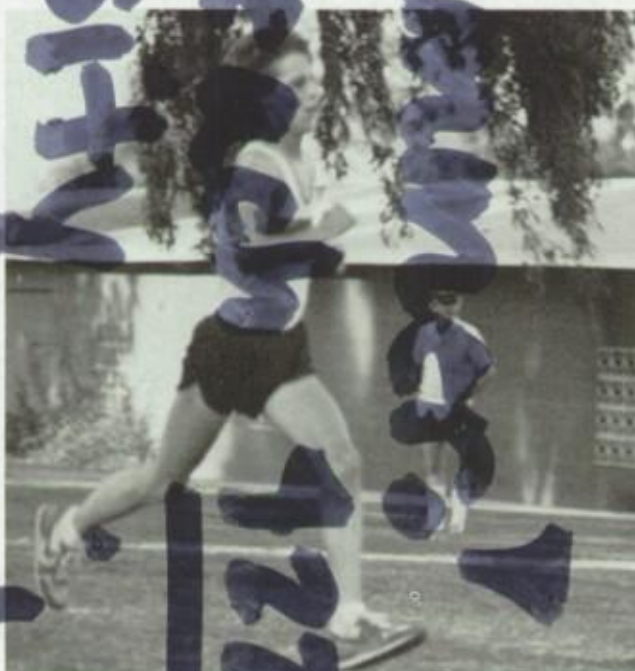

Supporting. The back row falls to their knees for support, just in case one of them misses the ball.

Work that soccer. Softball and soccer star, Priscilla Murgula, has full control of the soccer ball against her opponent from Mar Vista.

Aim, fire! Steve Girten helps our relatively young football team gain the respect they deserve by playing with the intensity it takes to be a winner.

Slim Jim. With the experience gained from the second year on the cross-country team, Jim can set the pace for the rest to follow.

Above the crowd. Eddie Moreno goes up for a rebound with David Cagney. Eddie was the team's leading scorer, but unfortunately, the season ended early for him with an ankle injury.

To The Varsity Squad of '85:

The year has ended - our time is up-
We've had our fun & we've lived it up
We started out strangers, but now we see
Through this year we've become a family
It started in the summer w/practice every Day- We won all the awards & we were on Our way- Overcoming frustration was our greatest feat- But w/Mike & Dave to help
We couldn't be beat- Then school started in Sept. & the football games arrived-
We made our candy-pins & run throughs-
It's a miracle we're still alive- We were "Burning Up" w/excitement, the "Glamorous Life" was next, and the peacock in the middle, it was "The 8" at their best- All the jokes about the "honkies" & those Fresh Off the Boat we made it to basketball season w/out choking each others throats- We shared a lot of memories & cried some bitter tears- But the bond we built between us will last us all our years- There's just one thing that you should know- one small note before I go. We were awesome & we stood tall- Please keep in touch cuz I'll miss you all!!!

Love, your captain,
Debbie

To Steve:

Well our high school years are over-
It's time to get on with our life-
We've gone through so much these past 4yrs.
We endured the pain & strife-
We've always understood each other-
We knew each other too well-
I loved you more than anything-
Although you couldn't always tell-
As time progresses people change-
Sometimes they even grow apart-
I still think of you & care for you
From the bottom of my heart-
Now we know each other again-
We're the closest of good friends-
But I want you to know (you've heard it before)- My love will never end!

9-12-21,
Debbie

To Jennifer and Sylvia, and my Special Sisters. Out of all the Sisters in the world, I'm glad
I got stuck with you three heads
All of you are my very best friends
I love you all very much.

Well, we did it !
Another year with all the jiggs ! This is the year when all the good things happened
So, is this the end of it or are we just warming up ?! Glad us three made it through... let's not forget the crazy times we had... parties (member the box) our hearts
It's like... trip out this year... Hey... All

To the Class of '85",

Always keep your Trojan Pride and the feeling you get when you hear "Parade of the Chariott Tears".

To My Mom and Dad,

I can't begin to Thank-you enough for all you have done for me! I love you!!

To My Friends, I leave a thought...

Trojan Pride will always be so very special and dear to me.
It brings back memories of days gone by that I will keep, until I die.
Many friends have come and gone but their memories linger on.
So don't forget where you came from,
Just remember Trojans are #1!!

May God Bless and keep you,

HEY ASB!! We've gone thru a lot, knowing that we did our best! In the beginning, we were just a bunch of seniors thrown together to make '85 perfect. We came out making last ing friendships that will make our phone bills soar. LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL!...CP spinning on her back & our WAVE while decorating @ Senior Awards...all-ASB beach party...ASB camp(Chicken fights in the pool, Joker the mummy, "How do you FEEL?")...our excellent Homecoming(Waking @ 2AM, donuts, Alan Wiggins, exhaustion)...Pizza Party...X-Mas @ CP's...ES's Cippendale cards...Trivial Pursuit...ES's eating habits...Girls League...our cool BMOC! Thanx for listening to my problems, Arnie! I wouldn't trade ASB for all the money in the world (Well, maybe!) I will always remember your laugh on all those phone calls, Judah-Budah! I will never forget you all: Risa, Sue, Joker, Iguana, Stelle, Deb, Elsie, Cu-Jo, & Aames Home Loan (Amy)! I LOVE ALL OF YOU!! Best wishes, Sandi

RAY,

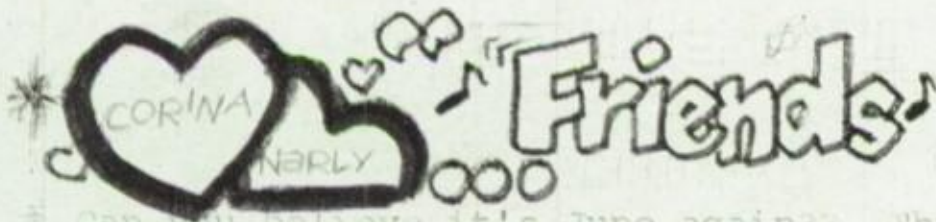

DEC 12 '84 - FOREVER

THANKS FOR BEING THE BEST PART OF MY SENIOR YEAR. YOU MAKE EVERY DAY A SPECIAL ONE. MY LOVE FOR YOU WILL NEVER END.

I LOVE YOU,
RISA

Can you believe it's June again?? This year sure did fly by us, didn't it?...Well, at least not too fast to give our tomorrows great memories. So, we can tell our little Corina's and Noralie's just how ba-ad their mommies used to be....

Like... all the classes we decided were over for the day, and third period in the bathroom talking about how madly in love we were with the TWO GEEKS—that started this whole friendship...And when we went to that one party with them, my mom thought that one "GUY" was crossed-eyed...and the cologne they wore!! Dang, was that their first bottle?? Then summer came along with the new guys!! Jose, John, LYNN, and that PINCHI-PUTO DOUG!! What about that 1st football game and Palomar Park, Tickle Pink, and Rae-shon's wild shirt. And the Lauderbach party after it!! The Howdy Dance with Jess(who's dat?) And Alicia, Martha, Remember how IN-LOVE I was with LYNN RAMSEY and you with MR. JESSE AGUAN!! (FRESH) All the problems I had in the nut house, Donna's party!!! All the heartbreaks, hassles, and hangovers!!! The songs, lyrics to Purple Rain!! "Kissing You" SECRET FANTASIES— guy liggins, lynn ramsey, john phillips, jesse aguan, doug terrado, shon clemo, tony, frank, jose, eddie, sal.... WHO ARE ALL THESE PEOPLE???? Staring at SERGIO and EUGENE!! Basing on R.I.P.!! Basketball games, throwin pennies at lunch..... MY DEPUTAN!!!! Can't wait til SUMMER!! We are gonna live it up!! MALIBU BEACH!! I'm so glad I met you, MIJA!! You're just so much fun to be with, and I thank u for being there every single time!

"ALL I NEED"

... The nights are low & we're alone... the sky is dark, the moon's astray... when I reached out and touched your face... the memories of our first embrace... please don't hesitate hold my hands, don't be afraid... and the feelings are in your arms... coz it's the first time... the first time for LOVE... together... the two of us... TONIGHT... - - -

To my one & only... CRICKET...

I LOVE YOU !!

Always, Aileen

I had a great time. Thank you for all your hospitality I will always remember my year here in California.

Hi Angie whats up? Well this year as finally come to a end
And im really glad you made it for ~~the~~ troyanets, I really think you wont end up being stuck up like some people I know! Im really glad I ended being close friends with you, I remember last year I use to think of you as a stupid weird girl, But now since I had a chance to get to know you better your a really cool chick, And I really do mean that, And I think Jenor is cool & her sister, When I first met Barbara I thought she hated me, But I guess she doesn't. Hey in the summer keep in touch OK? We could go to the beach & then go out after words

Dear Angie,

How are you I hope you have a good time this summer. I enjoyed meeting you this year.

Friends

4 - Ever

Jupita J,

Angie, I have so much to say but I just cant write it all out first I want you to know how much I value our friendship you my best friend which I'm sure you know by now you just like a sister to me we've been through so much more than anyone can even guess but its all part of life I want you to know no matter how bad some things have been with us there are times when I'm a real litch and snotty toward you but I want you to try and forget those times and think of only the times when we laughed and cried together especially when we cried because we'll remember those most especially why we cried and no matter what when I was feeling bad about something or someone you were always there for me and if I needed to cry alone you left me alone, but most of all I value ~~you~~ you for being there for me and being there whenever I needed you the most when I cried about something that you knew, was tearing me apart inside you cried with me because that's the kind of friend you are you always cared about what I was feeling and I love you for that and I always will for as long as I can remember most of all I'll always remember you and our friendship you helped me through so many things you know like when I totally thought it was the end of the world because of one person but you always helped me with your happy cheerful self I hope you never change just mature in your personality I hope you all the happiness in world I know things will get better for you
